SKI HIGH!

It was all steep slopes, fresh snow and high speed last weekend at Cannonsburgh, when the group of Marianites skied their weekend to a jolly good time.

The memorable weekend started during the wee-hours of Saturday morn when about 40 of us cruised the sleepy interstate in a cozy Greyhound. We reached the slopes at sunrise and skidded, skidded and skied till sunset that very day. Sunday was even better. Fresh from the luxurious comfort of the Holiday Inn, we were early risers for a Sunday morn. The slopes liked crisp, the sun was mild and it started to snow slowly. It was indeed the ideal setting for real skiing. The day seemed short as the time skied away. But what we had with us was fun and sweet memories of a very successful trip.

Now, all this would not have been possible if not for the relentless work put in by the Student Board members in charge of this "fun operation". A big THANK YOU goes to the President of the Student Board, the Treasurer and the rest who helped them make this trip a great success. We thank you all very much, once again.

Neel.

TAG NOTES
Hey, look ... yeah, you, old or new or wishing to be members of TAG (Theatre Arts Guild), we're going to have our first meeting of the new decade on Wednesday, February 6 at 4:30 p.m. in the auditorium. Let me tell you of the importance of the meeting. We will be discussing the election of a new secretary, the T-shirts, and, of course, "EUBIE".
TAG will still sponsor a discount group to see "EUBIE". If you wish to go (staff, faculty or student) you must bring money to the meeting or be sure to contact us sometime before the meeting. Again, "EUBIE" is a musical revue, based on Broadway, of the work of Eubie Blake.
TAG is also proud to announce the membership of four actors into the Alpha Psi Omega fraternity. This is an honorary membership to the national theatre fraternity. They are Dina Harding, Mark Bradley, Nadine Phillips and Dennis McCullough, all Sophomores. Congratulations!

Dennis

P.S. Only 3 weeks till "YOEMAN OF THE GUARD".

THE CHEERLEADERS ARE SELLING CARNATIONS!

BLUE to say 'Your place or mine?'
WHITE - 'To my good friend'.
PINK - 'To my sweetheart'.
YELLOW - 'I admire you from afar.'
STEM - 'In the Valentine heart of my life, you're a double coronary.'

We will be taking orders at dinner Monday through Friday of next week. Free delivery and the cost is $1.00 for carnations and .25 c for stems.

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING INTERESTING AND DIFFERENT TO DO?
Then plan to attend the Ecumenical Student Conference sponsored by the Indiana Office of Campus Ministry on Friday night, February 15 to Saturday February 16 (4 p.m.) at St. Maur's Conference Center in Indy. The theme, "Expressions of Christian Community: Fellowship, Intimacy and Service", will be presented by Ernest and Susan Collamat. The conference is a good opportunity to meet other college students from Indiana who are from a variety of Christian denominations, and to share fun, fellowship and faith with them. The cost is only $5.00. Registration forms can be obtained from the bulletin boards by chapel and the Ministry Center, or from Sharon Roell, Christy Wesselman, Ann Rody or Sr. Sue.

ASSISTANCE NEEDED
If you would be willing to help someone walk back and forth to Doyle when it has been snowing, please call Ext. 588 to make arrangements.

BETHY SEZ...
This past weekend, forty persons from Marian ventured on a trip; many of whom had no idea what it would entail. A few were like Jean Claude Kilays and Suzy Chapsticks. For the majority, it was the first time on skis, but after each fall or 'wipe out', they picked their aching bodies off the ground and got 'right back on that horse' (in this case they hit the slopes again). There were none of the major problems usually associated with large group outings, especially those comprised primarily younger persons. Except for a few minor problems (apologies to K.L., V.H., and L.M.), everything went smoothly, and everyone acted responsible yet seemed to have a good ole time!
I hope Marian tries these group outings more often. They can prove to be quite successful and serve as morale builders.

Respectfully submitted,
Beths Watheus

RECORD REVIEW
Pink Floyd's new album "The Wall" is the bands first project in 3 years. It is also their most ambitious, and in this rocker's opinion, their best work to date. The Wall's lyrics were written entirely by Floyd's bassist Roger Waters. He and lead guitarist David Gilmour co-wrote the album's music. Although keyboardist Richard Wright and drummer Nick Mason are not listed in the album credits, their voices are heard throughout the album, in between tracks and in the middle of them. This practice is one of the characteristics of Pink Floyd, and has been used as early as their first 'commercial' album "Dark Side of the Moon".

The Wall tells a tale of isolation, of a wall built brick by brick around a person by forces in his life. Waters' cynicism cuts through his lyrics like a knife. The album opens with the song "In the Flesh" where a notable amount of contempt for rock fans and rock press comes across. Rock promoters and critics frequently come under Waters' blade, the most obvious example being the "Wish You Were Here" album. The rest of the first side contains Thin Ice another brick in the wall (where Waters attacks the creatively stifling institutions in England known as public schools) and a song called "Mother". In "Mother" the first bricks are laid:
"Mother's gonna check out your girlfriends for you, Mother won't let anyone dirty get through. Mama's gonna keep Baby comfy and warm. Oooohh Baby Babe
Yes, Mother's gonna help build a wall.''
Waters feels government owned schools do more damage than good and his sentiments are felt in another brick in the wall:
"I don't need no education
I don't need no thought control
I have read the writing on the wall
Don't think I need anything at all
All in all it's just another brick in the wall."

Of course all the songs on "The Wall" don't have all this heavy handed sentiment. Side 2 contains a few good rockers. "Young Lust" is a song that boarders almost on Funk, and contains some real nifty hooks. "One of My Turns"chronicles one day in the life of a mad rocker. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 5)
Hello Friends,

Last weekend the basketball team traveled to Hanover College to play in a Tournament. Their first game was against Campbellsville who I hear is an amazingly good team. We lost against them scoring 57 points against their 95. Leading scorer from our team was Becky Brothers, tallying 13 points. We blew away Thomas-Moore in the next game with our score of 70 against their 30.

We played IUPUI on Monday and I'm happy to report that we beat them (finally, after all these years) by two points, with the score of 64-62. That had been one goal that each member of the team had endeavored to accomplish. Leading scorer was Tina Miller (14 pts.), followed by Mary Saam (12 pts.), with Julie Vogelwede, Kim Herrsch and Becky Brothers all scoring in double figures. Personally, I am pleased with the Knights performance and I hope their present record of 7 wins and 4 losses will continue to rise with a winning margin. Due to an early Carbon Deadline, the "Senior and more" for yesterday's game will be reported next week. Here is a list of our next home games.

Saturday 10:00 a.m. against Indiana Central
Feb. 5, Tuesday 7:00 p.m. against Franklin

I thought a list of the team members would be appreciated, so here it is.

Ronda Alexander - Jr.
Lisa Amberger - So.
Becky Brothers - Jr.
Linda Fudenberger - Fr.
Kim Herrsch - So.
Mary Holste - Jr.
Pam Kieffer - Sr.
Tina Miller - Sr.
Mary Saam - Fr.
Julie Vogelwede - Fr.

Head Coach: Kathy Hennegan
Manager: Theresa Corcoran
Trainer: LouAnn Everett
Statistician: Janet Baurley

P.S. The members of the basketball team and the parents and fans who attended Parents Day would like to say "Thanks" for the efforts make by M.C.A.P.H.E.R., Becky, Fran, and Sue for making it quite an enjoyable time.

TO ALL -

There will be a retreat for anyone wanting to come. It will be a time for growth, reflection and fun. There is a fee of $5.00 for residents on 20 meal plan and $10.00 for others. If you are interested, please contact Sr. Sue or Sr. Rose Mary. Applications are in the Campus Ministry Office.

The Knights had an impressive win last Saturday over Indiana Tech, 85-70. Dale Wernke came out of his slump to pace the Knights with 21 points. The Knights now own a 13-5 record, and ranked second in NAIA District 21, while ranking tenth in Defensive point average, at 58.7, in the national league.

The Knights are looking forward to the playoffs after the season. The game the Knights were supposed to play Wednesday was postponed until yesterday. The next game they play will be against Bethel, tomorrow night at the Armory. The Knights beat Bethel earlier in the year 61-58 up in South Bend. Tomorrow night is also Parents Night for the Players, so let's have a big crowd, and enthusiasm for the game. The next home game after tomorrow nights game will be in one week against Marion on Saturday, February 9th.
