3-21-1980

The Carbon (March 21, 1980)

Marian University - Indianapolis

Follow this and additional works at: http://mushare.marian.edu/crbn

Recommended Citation
http://mushare.marian.edu/crbn/131

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Campus Newspaper Collection at MUShare. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Carbon by an authorized administrator of MUShare. For more information, please contact emandity@marian.edu.
The views of this publication are those of the individual writer and are not necessarily those of Marian College.

CARBON

Robertta (Co-Editor)  |  MEG (Co-Editor)  |  Thorn Bjorg (New Carbon Typist)  |  Paco (New Staff Artist)

Jill preparing her Sr. Art exhibit for next weekend, Diana working on her art, & poets leaving art for; Gerry; Missouri; ever is incapacitating our ready supply of artists, rendering us vulnerable to the wit and whim of a novice staffer. — Suffer with us in this Lenten season.
DEAR STUDENTS, FACULTY, STAFF, ALUMNIS, AND ALL......

As an alumni of Marian and a present staff member, I've enjoyed seeing many of the changes time has imposed upon the College—all for the better. However, there is one function destined to die an apathetic death that could possibly be avoided. I'm speaking of the Care-a-Thon, held in the spring of every year. I understand this is to be the last year for this event, and it makes me pretty sad.

The Care-a-Thon was the biggest and happiest event this campus could offer. It was set apart by the fact that almost all students and faculty participated, united in a common cause. Unity—that's a good word to describe it, and the feeling surrounding it. (Not to mention the fact that it's always been an extremely good time!)

In past years, the money raised by the Care-a-Thon was given to the Kenny Rogers Memorial Scholarship Fund. Kenny was a student here in the sixties, who died of a ruptured spleen sustained during a Karate exhibition in his home town of Atlanta, Georgia. (It had been diagnosed as 'bruised ribs'.) He was integrally involved in the Up-beat Program helping inner city kids work towards bettering their lives through education. The Care-a-Thon was started in his honor and to continue the work he was so much a part of.

Now, if the only reason that the Care-a-Thon is being discontinued is that this fund is now defunct, aren't (continued on page 3)
AND YET ANOTHER RESPONSE TO THE "PISTOFFE MANI-FESTO ... OR ONCE MORE FROM LEONORE

Dear Mr. Atwood and Mr. Edwards,

May I ask you one simple question? Just how does one indeed caterwaul? Is it an innate ability in us all, or is the act something that only literate individuals such as your esteemed selves are attuned to? For I, for one, have never cought anyone in the afore mentioned act. But then I do not reside in a perpetual state of defficitation, or is it petty godhood, that both of you seem to believe is your right alone.

You also stated that the Fioretti has made numerous attacks against various areas (such as the sluggishness of lazy students and faculty who are too lathargic to do anything but what is easiest). This is fine to say, but you seem to forget that both of you are students here attending the same classes as do the rest of us, and neither of you are the 'Balls-of-fire' that you condemn us for not being.

Of course you might say that this has nothing to do with the Fioretti, but in fact it has everything to do with it and your main complaint, lack of interest. Just as both of you hardly ever become over-excited by the different classes deeming it necessary to only sit at your desks like stuffed slugs, contributing nothing except what you have to, so too do the students (most of them anyway) feel about the Fioretti. Why must we all try to achieve your standards when you yourselves do not try to achieve the standards that we hold? Of course we do not hold the same power to reject you from classes that we need and enjoy because you do not show creativity nor imagination, but it is indeed quite proper for us to reject us for doing the same "offense".

You said that you were shocked to find that the students read the Fioretti. Is your opinion
of us so low that you think that the mere act
of reading is beyond us? Or were you shocked
that we troubled to take the time to see if you
two really do exist and are not just decorations
propped around in various desks during the day?
Returning to the issue of the students not
caring, perhaps you have changed your minds now
(the article in the last two Carbons)? If you will notice, the students do take offense at certain issues and it appears lately that the most offensive have been you two. Of course when I first wrote to you, I did not expect so many students to confirm my own feelings, but it is refreshing to find that I am not alone in my shock and outrage.

I will admit that you do have a couple of supporters, (by the way Emily, my friends know
who I am also) but by far the general feeling
has been against and not for your high-handed
ways, but I can tell that you're not intelligent enough to comprehend this. Your brutal response to Eileen Herbertz proved that your sensitivity is all but non-existent. I say hats off CARE-A-THON CONCERN (Cont'd from p.2)

Even though I am graduating this spring, I know that the students who will remain will continue in their attacks (thank you D.H. for that

Leonore (Nevermore) Atwards

CRY YOU MERCY, ALEX SWIFDEN!

Such torrents of abuse rained down upon my
brow following the publication of "A Moderate Proposal" that I sincerely feared some personal grievous injury. It seems I had poked a stick
into a hornet's nest and the little buggers
sarcely found it amusing. This is not to say that I expected no reaction, just that I hoped beyond hope for responses in kind. But how foolish and unfounded an expectation, when I'm fully

aware of the ingrained righteousness of anger
and the fact that is by far the easiest path to take.

So overwhelming and painful were these incensed answers that I went into seclusion over
spring break and meditated upon the results of my jocular action. My conscience reproached me
and enjoyed because you do not show creativity nor imagination, but it is indeed quite proper for
us to reject us for doing the same "offense".

You said that you were shocked to find that
the students read the Fioretti. Is your opinion
of us so low that you think that the mere act
of reading is beyond us? Or were you shocked
that we troubled to take the time to see if you
two really do exist and are not just decorations
propped around in various desks during the day?
Returning to the issue of the students not
caring, perhaps you have changed your minds now
(the article in the last two Carbons)? If you will notice, the students do take offense at
certain issues and it appears lately that the most offensive have been you two. Of course when I first wrote to you, I did not expect so many
students to confirm my own feelings, but it is refreshing to find that I am not alone in my
shock and outrage.

I will admit that you do have a couple of
supporters, (by the way Emily, my friends know
who I am also) but by far the general feeling
has been against and not for your high-handed
ways, but I can tell that you're not intelligent enough to comprehend this. Your brutal response to Eileen Herbertz proved that your sensitivity is all but non-existent. I say hats off CARE-A-THON CONCERN (Cont'd from p.2)

Even though I am graduating this spring, I
know that the students who will remain will continue in their attacks (thank you D.H. for that

Leonore (Nevermore) Atwards

Such torrents of abuse rained down upon my
brow following the publication of "A Moderate Proposal" that I sincerely feared some personal grievous injury. It seems I had poked a stick
into a hornet's nest and the little buggers
sarcely found it amusing. This is not to say that I expected no reaction, just that I hoped beyond hope for responses in kind. But how foolish and unfounded an expectation, when I'm fully

aware of the ingrained righteousness of anger
and the fact that is by far the easiest path to
take.

So overwhelming and painful were these incensed answers that I went into seclusion over
spring break and meditated upon the results of
my jocular action. My conscience reproached me
and enjoyed because you do not show creativity nor
imagination, but it is indeed quite proper for
us to reject us for doing the same "offense".

You said that you were shocked to find that
the students read the Fioretti. Is your opinion
of us so low that you think that the mere act
of reading is beyond us? Or were you shocked
that we troubled to take the time to see if you
two really do exist and are not just decorations
propped around in various desks during the day?
Returning to the issue of the students not
caring, perhaps you have changed your minds now
(the article in the last two Carbons)? If you will notice, the students do take offense at
certain issues and it appears lately that the most offensive have been you two. Of course when I first wrote to you, I did not expect so many
students to confirm my own feelings, but it is refreshing to find that I am not alone in my
shock and outrage.

I will admit that you do have a couple of
supporters, (by the way Emily, my friends know
who I am also) but by far the general feeling
has been against and not for your high-handed
ways, but I can tell that you're not intelligent enough to comprehend this. Your brutal response to Eileen Herbertz proved that your sensitivity is all but non-existent. I say hats off CARE-A-THON CONCERN (Cont'd from p.2)

AN URGENT COMMENTARY

Who are these reactionaries who call themselves "The Free Radicals?" Exactly what is this whole controversy about? Is it of general interest to the student population? No—throw that one out. Nothing is of general interest to the student population. Can the true meaning behind this seeming furor lie in some test of all things, for God's sake? Or is there some deeper, darker mystery to it, being disguised from prying eyes?

I believe I've found the key and it unlocks an ugly, malevolent plan which is simply awaiting the proper signal to leap out from its lair in all its pent-up fury and commit mayhem upon its unsuspecting victims. What is this plan, you ask?—you who have been so blind as to miss the obvious (to a trained cryptanalyst) secret coding of the communications. Allow me to lay out a few clues through the breaking of certain vital code words and phrases: "Natural Science"=the Establishment; the "test" refers to the coming insurrection; and the phrase "the questions weren't simple for you" of course implies the rebuilding of a more tractable and less unreachable administration. The purport of the entire dialogue becomes immediately and distressingly clear. The "Free Radicals", using the medium of the institutional organ—the Carbon, are massing their forces with the sole intent of overthrowing the current administration and empowering in its place a puppet regime, the titular head of which will be a Mickey Mouse figure completely subservient to the powers which installed him in office. What follows this even the blind themselves are well aware of—purges, bloodbaths, a "new order."

This is my warning. The time is approaching. The bullets are being sharpened. Wake up! and strangle this threat before it is too late and defeat becomes a foregone conclusion. Dredly Nothrop, Esq.

JOHN POWELL FILM SERIES:
"FREE TO BE ME"

Tuesday night, 9 p.m. in Clare Hall Lounge, and Wednesday 11:30 a.m. in the Home Ec Lab, Clare Hall, room 128, (bring your cafe tray or bag lunch)—for viewing and discussing the 17 minute film: "How Can I Love Another?" Everyone is welcome. Sponsored by Campus Ministry.

MARIAN CIRCLE K CLUB RATED TOPS IN DIVISION

The Marian College Chapter of Circle K International took double honors at the recent district convention of the organization, held March 14-16 at Stouffer's Inn in Indianapolis.

Donna M. Schroeder, Marian sophomore and club president during the past year, was elected Lt. Governor of the Whitewater Division of Circle K for the coming year.

The Marian Circle K unit was named the "Best Club" in the division and third best among 19 collegiate units in the state for their many activities and projects during 1979-80.

A music education major at Marian, Schroeder is a native of rural Jasper in Dubois County. She was graduated from Marian Heights Academy in Ferdinand, Indiana.

Five members of Marian's group attended the district convention.

MCAPER

MCAPER is sponsoring a Ping Pong Tournament to take place on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 12:30 to 1:30 in Clare Hall lounge and basement. There will be a $5.00 entry fee, and guys and girls will play in the same league. Sign-up will be Friday March 21 at lunch and dinner, and Tuesday March 25 at lunch and dinner. The drawings for who will play whom will be on Thursday, March 27. Prizes will be awarded, first place: a trophy and money; second place: a trophy.

CARE-A-THON SCHEDULED FOR APRIL 23 - 25

Plans for the Care-A-Thon are being formulated. The Theatre Arts Guild is producing several one - acts with proceeds to benefit the Care-A-thon. There are plans underway for ping-pong, euchre and backgammon tournaments. Efforts are also being made to pull off a pseudo- Monte Carlo Night.

The Care-A-Thon will begin bright and early Wednesday morning, April 23rd, and will end when everyone has left on Friday night the 25th. This year will see the return of all the traditional events including some that have been hibernating for a few years. People are needed to dance in the 24 hour Marathon. People are also needed to sponsor these brave souls in their efforts (don't worry guys and gals— it can be done!).

The Nebulous Players have reunited and there's a chance we'll see them at this year's Care-A-Thon. They're a group of Marian graduates who have acquired into a versatile comedy team. There's always room for ideas and assistance, please feel free to make suggestions. The Care-A-Thon isn't dead yet. If your idea isn't complete or lacks feasibility bring it to me anyway. It can be worked on or may provide a needed inspiration.

Auditions for potential participants in the Care-A-Thon will be held this year. They are scheduled for Wednesday, March 26th from 1pm—4pm, tentatively in Marian Hall Auditorium. If this isn't possible, signs will be posted with new location. If you can't make it to the audition at this time, please contact me at extension 276.

Thank you,
Roberta Schiller
March is National Nutrition Month. Below is a list of Nutrition books for the lay reader. This list is recommended to the general public based on references of the American Dietetic Association.

- Food for Sport by M.J. Smith
- Nuts Among the Berries, Ronald M. Deutsch.
- Diet for a Small Planet, by Frances Moore Lappe.

If further information is desired contact: Deana Cooper, R.D.
19041 Northbrook Circle
Westfield, In. 46074
(317) 896-3921

ATTENTION ALL STUDENTS

If you want to vote in the primary or subsequent elections and haven't yet registered, see Sister Rachel West in the history office.

UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY

Anyone wanting to draw this week's Carbon cover please stop into the office at least eight hours before reading this announcement. Thank you, you'll never know how much we appreciate the effort.

Thanks post-humorously,
Roberta and Megan

MAIL ROOM HOURS CUT

For the last few weeks the mail room has only been open for a limited time each day, making it difficult for students to purchase stamps, have packages weighed and the like. The only alternative for buying stamps on campus is the stamp machine in the switchboard. The only substitute for having a package weighed is the postage scale in the Business Office.

The shortened hours is an inconvenience for many students, especially those with schedules not coinciding with the schedule of the mail room. While Mrs. Spelina is training the mail nun for extra duties, couldn't someone else be trained as a surrogate for her usual duty?

---

"The mark of your ignorance is the depth of your belief in injustice and tragedy.
What the caterpillar calls the end of the world,
the Master calls a butterfly."
—Richard Bach

SPORT SHORTS

CORKY’S CORNER

Hello Chumlies,
I hope you all had a nice vacation. Here’s a summary of the Women’s Basketball Season:

- MARIAN vs. Franklin (lost) 51-60
- MARIAN vs. Indiana Central (lost) 45-51
- MARIAN vs. I.U.P.U.I. (lost) 41-65
- MARIAN vs. Anderson (won) 75-61
- MARIAN vs. IUPUI Ft. Wayne (won) 70-47
- MARIAN vs. Depauw (won) 69-36
- MARIAN vs. St. Mary’s (won) 67-37
- MARIAN vs. Cambellsville (lost) 57-95
- MARIAN vs. Thomas-Moore (won) 70-30
- MARIAN vs. I.U.P.U.I. (won) 64-62
- MARIAN vs. Butler (lost) 55-84
- MARIAN vs. I.C.U. (won) 65-52
- MARIAN vs. Franklin "B" (won) 58-50
- MARIAN vs. Hanover (won) 68-56
- MARIAN vs. St. Joseph (lost) 35-67
- MARIAN vs. Earlham (won) 81-34
- MARIAN vs. ISU Evansville (won) 51-47
- MARIAN vs. Depauw (won) 64-52
- MARIAN vs. IUPUI Ft. Wayne (won) 66-62
- MARIAN vs. Indiana Tech (won) 56-39
- MARIAN vs. Butler (lost) 48-71

Our overall record was 15 wins, 7 losses. It was an excellent improvement from last year's record. The basketball team members and I would like to thank all the people who graciously helped out at all the home games and related activities. I would like to give a SPECIAL "Thanks" to all the fans who attended the games. I hope to have the season's statistics within the next few columns. I hope your remaining semester is a good one. Take care all you fuglies.

---

"The mark of your ignorance is the depth of your belief in injustice and tragedy.
What the caterpillar calls the end of the world,
the Master calls a butterfly."

—Richard Bach

He who is wrapped up in himself makes a small package.
APPLAUDS

YOU THINK YOU S-H-O-U-L-D-!

ANDREA'S WEDNESDAY GOOSE

ANDREA THE NIGHT OPERATOR

BIG DADDY'S

ME!

GUTTER RATS IN THE SUN

BRONZE GODS

STICKY SAND

HOLES IN WALLS

SPIKE + SPOT

DM. J THE D.J.

LOOKING GOOD, SOUNDING BETTER

ZARTMAN, THE PEELING RED LOBSTER

THE DAYTONA GIGOLO

PHIL AND THE LIFEGUARD CHAIR

JONI WESTON

AND SHE CUTS IT OFF

LEWIS STUCK IN THE SAND

GREEN-BEER

PHIL SAVARD

SPRAY STARCH

LOOK INTO MY EYES, DO YOU SEE BATS?

I SAW THEM DO IT ON EMERGENCY

IT'S A MIRACLE

COME WALK WITH ME SISTER

WHAT'S A ROACH

WALK TO THE MUSEUM

BEST FRIENDS

JEWEISH JEANS

MY CAR!!! IT MADE IT TO MIAMI!!!

THE "BUSH"

MEG AND PACO!!!

YOU CREEP

WALK TO ART MUSEUM

HAPPY SPRING LISA AND SARA!!, K.K.

CHICAGO WHERE WE COME!!

CHOCOLATE FRIENDS

CINDY SUE IS 22

50 DAYS TIL GRADUATION

HAZELWOOD MISSOURI WITH GERRY!!

OMNI

JEWAMI

PACO NEW CARBON ARTIST???

THORN BJORG NEW CARBON TYPIST

MEG AND ROBERTA

STARS 21 BIRTHDAY!!!

PEELING FRONTS, FACES AND BACKS

BEAUTIFUL DIANA SOLAR !!!

BLONDE HAIR

A FREE POUND

BECKY-500

EDDIE !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

ONLY 3 SEMESTERS LEFT

ROSE ELSNER'S CUTE HAIRCUT!!!!

FREE AIR AND BIG NOSES

DOYLE HALL- HAPPY SWEET 16!!!

POETS VISITING ME AT THE DESK ON THURSDAY NITE!

PACOS TEETH, THEIR GOOD FOR SOMETHING!!

HEIL YOUNG

BUBBLES NOT ALICE!!!!!!

SAILBOATING

PORT LAUDERDALE

RETURN FLIGHT FROM MIAMI

EASTER RUNNIES

GODFATHERS ON THURSDAY NIGHT 3-20-80.

TOM B. TYPING

SPRING

ARLO GUTHRIE

ROSES (FLOWERS)

BECKY

GODZILLA

LIQUOR LICKERS

HAPPY ST.PATRICKS D&Y

hisses

thorn typing

flight down to ft lauderdale

alice not bubbles

kick it around

offer it up

feel good feel good like a working man should bathing beauties

him, him, him

fan belts

you know what kills me?

romantic ideas

yellow shorts

so-called friends

that don't talk

to you after break

flying tables

pukin in the lounge

4 a.m. wakeups

peeling florida sunburns

breakups

gas gas gas gas gas

the price of gas

no money after break

the caf food 7 days a week

mid term tests after midterm break

the drinking age in indiana compared to floridas

coming back to school after 10 days in miami and 10 days in west palm beach , and 10 days in ft lauderdale.

mills

CONFIDENTIALS

Hey mac, lets just puke in the ocean.

How's the wife Mills?

Tim, don't look down there.

Tim, what's so great about Chattanooga?

Phil, should we go for a walk?

Phil, who's double are you?

M.B. the thing about it is......

Hey Buddy- I mean Phil

Tim, what did you let go on the track?

Paco- "you did!"

Paco, how inviting do you look?

Paco, how was OMNI?

Dave, did you lose anything else besides your mirror Monday night?

What ever happened to the committee for extending vis hours???

MESSIAH'S HANDBOOK

A cloud does not know

why it moves in just such a direction and at such a speed,

was what the handbook had to say.

It feels an impulsion...this is the place to go now. At the sky knows the reasons and the patterns

behind all clouds,

and you will know, too, when you lift yourself high enough to see beyond

horizons.

Ilusions

Richard Bach

**********************************************