It's a Bad Day When....

Amy Cedar

- You lose your term paper ten minutes before class and it's 80% of your grade.
- Your alarm goes off at 5:30 a.m.
- Your typewriter gives out, and you have a paper due the next day.
- The washers go crazy and shrink all of your clothes.
- You come back at 1:00 a.m. and your roommate has moved the furniture.
- You call home and no one knows who it is.
- You start to like college food.
- For your final in Theology you have to rewrite the Bible.

THIS WEEK'S CHUCKLE

Spring is Sprung, Fall has Fell, Now it's Winter (or so it seems) and Cold as Hell!!

Thanks For a Great Year

As outgoing President of the Student Association, I wish to extend thanks to all who helped make this past year a productive one. Improvement of student government and the connected services remains difficult, but proper planning and concerned students can make the difference. A strong Student Association coupled with the support of the student body can generate changes which many people feel are necessary. Fully support Wayne and the new officers and you may be pleasantly surprised with their efforts. I wish everyone a fine spring and a much-awaited summer.

Take care,

Mike Dugan

Congratulations

Kathy and Steve

on your engagement!

Love,

Carey, Cecilia, JR, and Sara

INDIANA WEATHER...

It's for the birds (snowbirds)

Sunday  Monday
Dear Editor:
I am writing this letter in hope you could see fit to investigate a small, but frustrating situation. The situation being the mail room hours in Marian Hall, (I could probably stop here, as "everybody" at some time or another has encountered this problem). Not that the hours are necessarily inadequate or inconvenient, but that the hours are not promptly kept.

Sister Rosemary Lee is very nice--when you are fortunate enough to catch her down there. I understand she has rounds to make from the mail room.

Wouldn't a simple solution to the problem be to establish a list of office hours; and exclude those times for rounds, etc., then keep those hours.

I've gone down five times this week, (during posted hours), for stamps only to find the door closed. Others have been down when I was, and like me, left upset.

Sincerely,
Bill Wainstrath

Bill,
I don't know if you are aware of it or not, but stamps are sold in the Business Office as well as at switchboard for those times when Sr. Rosemary Lee is out of the mailroom.

Teri

Dear Editor,
Could it be made policy to inform students of upcoming events that will close campus facilities to us.

As an example, the science fair this week was obvious because all the signs around however if was not obvious what would be closed = e.g. the intramural gym.

Concerned Student
Bill Wainstrath

Bill,
Sometimes I find out about the events and publicize the information. On most occasions, including the Science Fairs, I did not know about them until they were going on (from what I understand Mike Henderson did not know about it either.)

Teri

Room Draw

The room draw for Alverna, Clare Hall, Clare Annex and Doyle Hall will be held on April 16 and 17. The draw will take place in the lounges of your dormitories. If you desire a particular room, make sure you are there. Those who are not eligible will be assigned rooms by the Residence Hall Director.

World Hunger Concert

First Annual Concert, "Legends, Fantasies, and the Gospel Truth", to be held this weekend in Peine Arena. The show will be held on Saturday, April 13, at 8:00 p.m. and on Sunday, April 14, at 7:30 p.m. There will be a $2.00 donation, and all proceeds will go to help support "World Hunger". All are invited to attend this concert. There is much talent and entertainment. Hope to see you there.

Thanks

I would like to thank MANASA, MCAPHER, the Freshman class, and the Booster Club. Without their help, Little Brother/Sister Weekend would not have been the success that it was.

Yearbook Meeting

There will be a Yearbook meeting on Monday, April 15, at 9:00 in the Clare Hall Lounge. All those interested in being on the staff, please attend.

Doyle Hall Dance

There will be a dance held this Friday at Doyle Hall. The theme of the dance is "We Are The World". The dance will run from 9:00 p.m. - 12:00 p.m., in the lounge. All are invited to attend.

Senior Recital

On Sunday, April 14, Senior Steve Miller will present his Senior Recital, on the trumpet. The recital will be held at 3:00 p.m. in Stokely Music Hall. All are invited. Good luck Steve.

Way To Go

Steven Vest, husband of Clare Hall Resident Director Jean Vest, has won an Academy of American Poets prize for his poem "Edna K. Alred (1939)." The award, which carries a cash prize, is presented by the Indiana University English Department for the best poem written by a graduate student. The award ceremony will be held Wednesday, April 17.

Employees Honored

Monica Durbin

On Tuesday, April 9, the ARA student employees were honored for their services to the cafe. Yes, we are worth it. We give our services to the students, hoping that they enjoy it. The employees ignore the crude remarks about the food, the mess made on the trays, and the harassing comments about the way the cafe is run. Do we do it for the money and the fringe benefits? No! We do it to make the cafe a more pleasant place for the non-employees.

At the banquet, several awards were given out to the best in each category. Cathy Watt was awarded for the best dresser, Betsy King was the biggest flirt, Mike Markley was ARA clown, and Teresa DeHart was the ARA sloppiest dresser. The ARA employee of the year was given to the dedicated senior who speaks her mind, Missy Moon. Special thanks to the dignitaries who attended, Col. Ryan, Don French, Dean Woodman, Dave, Gary and Shelly. Hey Gary, NICE dinner.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Joe Fey on his letter of high recommendation for the teaching profession. According to inside sources, it was a letter of recommendation that Joe will never forget. Once again, Congratulations Joe, and good luck.
