Senato Proposal Examined

The restructuring of the Student Board seems to be of primary importance to the present and future university. This idea was brought before the board three weeks ago by Dick Gardner in the form of a recommendation. This recommendation, as elaborated by Dick, the student government would be composed of an Executive Council and a Student Senate. The Executive Council would include such offices as president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and the chairs of Social, Academic Affairs, Welfare, Publicity, and Inter-club Committees. The members of the Senate would be elected from student membership in individual classes. This proposal was made in order to provide better representation.

One must keep in mind the failings of the present student government. The biggest problem seems to be in the breadth of the meetings. Any meeting that extends over more than two hours will lose attention. This fact is very evident by the minutes posted by the board. Discussion on legislation and recommendations is spun out at a stretch of a two-hour time limit. Discussion for the recommendation of Student Save Council and a Student Senate will last far too long for a mere recommendation.

A second failing is the presence of a few non-functional members of the board. These individuals, being part of the Student Board, if that idea involves part of the whole student body, would be kept in a simply haphazard manner. The board not fulfilling its duties be he president or day student representative be impeached.

Race Relations

What about race relations on Marian's campus? Many groups are not segregated into different housing facilities, eating places, and the like. If we are so far integrated, are we not far removed from the problem? A senate would re-echo the question: If we have difficulty filling these positions, how will we fill the new positions created by the Student Senate?

In their campaigns, both Rob- ert Kennedy and Eugene McCarthy have made an attempt to appeal to the youth of the country. They both deemed the support necessary if not vital. Why is this? Could it be for the same reasons that we hear educators repeatedly say that the college students of today are the finest group they have ever encountered?

We can say over and over again that ours is a time of hope. We accept the words of our instruc tors with blind faith. We ask for reasons so that we may understand. In the area of religion, we ask why (cont'd on p. 3)

Voting Age

Dear Editor,

I agree with your editorial that college youth, as well as all youth, are "better acquainted with the issues at stake" and "even usually more so than adults" who have been voting for several years. However, I do not feel that we should take issue with you if you believe that they should lower the voting age to 18. I feel that there is a large gap between the ages 18 and 21. In regards to taking on responsibility and having good judgment. This, I think, is what is lacking in most 18 year olds, but begins to develop in 18 year olds. When these young people have made the decision and have voted for the candidates who they feel are the best. It is not necessary for them to have had the experience to judge. I feel that this is a personal right and that they should be able to vote. This is when a young person is first to make a decision and get involved in politics.

-M be enough to perform responsible acts, such as voting.

This is when, I think, a young person would be ready to vote.

Therefore, while I disagree with your view of lowering the voting age (cont'd on p. 3)
