ATTENTION SENIORS!!

Dr. Appleby will be taking senior pictures this year for the yearbook. If you want him to take your picture, you must sign up this week (Oct. 21-25) to have your picture taken during the next two weeks (from Oct. 28 to Nov. 8). The sign-up sheet is posted on the bulletin board just to the right of the Psychology Department door. The charge for having your picture taken is $12 which includes a $6 sitting fee plus a $6 per senior charge to cover the cost of having the senior picture section of the yearbook printed in color. Please bring the $12 with you when you have your pictures taken. The proofs should arrive approximately two weeks after your pictures are taken. The deadline for ordering reprints will be Dec. 6. This is to ensure that you will have your reprints in time to submit a wallet size print to the yearbook by Dec. 18. This last date is very important because it will allow the yearbook staff to organize the senior section of the yearbook over the holiday vacation. If you have any questions about the pictures, please see Dr. Appleby.

MASS APPEAL COMES TO MARIAN

Three Marion, Indiana men have decided to join in the worldwide concern for the starving people in Africa.

Calling themselves, Actors for Africa, they are offering their rendition of the critically acclaimed play Mass Appeal ... with all proceeds going to the appealing masses in Africa ... via the Benedictine Mission Houses in several African countries.

The two man cast is composed of Jim Shildmyer, who plays Father Tim Farley, pastor of St. Francis Church. Mark Dolson, played by Harvey Fries, is a young Seminarian, studying under the guidance of Father Farley. The play is directed by Mike Shildmyer. The play will be presented at Marian College in Peine Arena Theater, October 26 at 8 p.m.
AIDS --
WHAT IS IT?

What is AIDS? Nowadays it seems we are always hearing this question asked. AIDS stands for Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, in other words, the body's natural ability to fight off disease is weakened. AIDS is not fatal. The diseases that AIDS patients come down with because of AIDS often are. The most common of these diseases are pneumonia and a blood cancer that is not usually hazardous for people with normal immune systems.

What causes AIDS? AIDS is believed to be caused by a virus. AIDS patients have been found to have several viruses. It is not known whether the viruses caused the immune deficiency or whether they showed up after the immune system was weakened.

Since January 1979, 13,074 cases of AIDS have been reported to the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta, 6,611 of these cases were fatal.

AIDS can be transmitted sexually, by using infected needles, through blood transfusions and through coagulants (blood clotting agents) made from infected human blood. There have been no cases of AIDS contracted from casual contact.

Even with all of these facts the public has become very leery, almost to the point of panic. But with all of the money that is pouring into the research hopefully a cure will be found soon.

STUDY:

The most frightening topic of conversation among college couples seems to be the couple's relationships, a survey of undergrads by Lewis and Clark College Prof. Leslie Baxter found.

Baxter thinks it's because mates fear finding out their lovers aren't as committed to the union as they are.

ED. NOTE: What's a love life?
