PRAYER FOR LIFE

Hints of Spring are seen around the campus recently. We hope that cold weather is behind us but we'll accept, Lord, whatever You have in store for us. We know You know what is best. We pray for life, Lord. We pray that people respect life in all forms: the unborn, the unfortunate, the outcasts. Help us to give hints of Spring and new life in our own lives by the way we live and greet one another. And, thank you, God, for the hints around us, reminding us to celebrate new life.

MONEY MAY ACCOMPANY STUDENT AWARDS

Dean Woodman announced Tuesday that a monetary award may accompany the Alumni Award as early as this spring.

The college has been searching for a sponsor who will agree to underwrite the cash segment of the award. No commitment has been made but Dean Woodman and his associates are exploring every avenue to enhance the Alumni Award.

The comprehensive awards program incorporating academic, departmental, club, and sports awards was established in the mid-70's. There was only one problem, all student awards were more or less equal. Five years ago the Alumni Award was established in recognition of that outstanding senior who excelled overall.

The prize that accompanies the Alumni Award is a certificate, a pen set, and the recipient's name on a plaque in the hallway by the switchboard. "It's really not unique," Woodman said, "I guess you can debate whether or not it is desirable" (not many Marianites would turn it down).

Prestige may be added to the Alumni award that may serve as an incentive for students. (At any rate $500 would help with the great expenses of attending college for four years.)

ATTENTION ! GERBILS HAVE NEW NEIGHBOR

Everybody knows that Sr. Olga Wittekind of the Psychology Department will be taking a sabbatical for the 1986-87 school year and I'm sure that this burning question looms in the minds of all Marian College students: Who will be the new teacher for the Psych Department?

Well of course it's Ms. Mary Guerreiro Austron! Ms. Austron will be teaching Abnormal Psychology during the second summer session and she will be teaching the class again, at two different times during the 1986 fall session.

Ms. Austron, in addition to teaching classes at Marian, is working on her PhD. She started on her doctorate at York University in Toronto, Canada, and has moved to Indianapolis with her husband, who is on the faculty at I.U. Her dissertation is on Alzheimer's Disease and she's currently working on the research aspect, so moving wasn't a major problem. She's also a part of the Psychology Department at IUPUI and does her research with the help of the chairman of the Institute of Psychiatry. Wow! She's sure not very busy, is she? In spite of the difficult work load, Ms. Austron says she seems to get more work done when she's busier. She commented that since her undergraduate school was also small, she's really looking forward to teaching at Marian!

ATTENTION, MUSICIANS!

Please remember to pre-register for band, and/or one of the fine vocal groups we have here at Marian.

This is a liberal arts college which means there is an opportunity to experience all fields of education—don't miss music!

We are also looking for musicians (students and faculty) who are interested in being in small instrumental groups such as a woodwind quartet. We especially need an oboe player and a bassoon player. We do have instruments for you if you need them.

For more information please call Jim Larner at 547-0025.
UNCLE BRAD IS BACK

Dear Uncle Brad,

President Marcos now owns 20 libraries and has recently contacted me and offers me big money for a few starter fleets of library wasps from our own Marian College Library. If I sell him a few fleets, Marian's population will be at an all time low for 1-2 years, and I may be persecuted for being a traitor. On the other hand, I will be rich, maybe rich enough to buy a library and start my own full breed (hybrid bred) of library wasps. What should I do?

Sincerely,
Phillip Ines

Dear Phil,

Go for it! Who knows, you may be sharing with citizens of other countries things they now know nothing of. Besides, I think we all know that the Marian Library has plenty of wasps to spare, and probably won't miss 20 or 25 small fleets. Keep in mind, however, that removing wasps from or killing wasps within our library may result in immediate dismissal from the school and a loss of two (2) birthdays as well as all college credits.

Uncle Brad

"Hello, Bayyy-bay!!" is the greeting vocalist Sammy Hagar gives to open the new Van Halen album 5150. In the case that you've been living in Mike Henderson's office for the past year, you may ask, "What!! Sammy Hagar?!! Where's David Lee Roth?" My answer is, "David Lee-Who?" Roth decided to leave the group and be a movie star (in a movie that won't even be released) and since he couldn't sing anyway—who cares?

The album's title is the number that police use that means "escaped mental patient" and, consequently, is the name for guitarist/keyboardist Eddie Van Halen's home studio, where the album was recorded. One listening will make clear the fact that although rumors abounded that Eddie VH wouldn't play any guitar on the album, the rumors are just so much b.s. If Sammy Hagar does play any guitar on the album, it's very minimal. Not since 1981's Fair Warning has Eddie played the guitar with such intensity and virtuosity. On 1982's Diver Down, the guitar parts sounded rushed (like he was drunk or stoned when he played) and 1984 was obviously commercial and didn't try to break any new ground. Now, with 5150 (without Roth to be around to screw him up) Eddie is kicking ass! Only two songs on the album, "Love Walks In" and "Dreams", are keyboard-oriented in a commercial-pop sort of way and in the other two songs that use Keyboards, "Why Can't This Be Love" and "Inside", they're used with the guitar taking precedence. In other words, this album is very heavily guitar-oriented! Sammy Hagar's good vocals have proved that while Roth may be entertainer extraordinaire on stage, Hagar is about the equivalent of the length of a half-life of the radioactive isotope Uranium 238 (what about that one, Fr. Leopold?!) ahead of Roth when it comes to using his vocal cords. Bassist Michael Anthony provides an excellent anchor to Eddie's guitar work while drummer Alex Van Halen provides his usual hard-hitting, yet precise, percussion expertise to the music.

As for overall songs, this reviewer favors "Summer Nights" and "Inside." The song "Summer Nights", in both music and suggestive lyrics, is truly a song that fits in with the Van Halen attitude of fun in the sun and Saturday nights. The music to "Inside" is almost painfully bone-crunching with very heavy guitar playing. The lyrics of the song seem to be taking a stab at Roth saying "It's not what you are/It's how you dress" and "I went out and bought some brand new shoes/Now I walk like someone else/Maybe I'm crazy or just too high/But all this can't be worth my piece of the pie." Hagar even imitates Roth's style of singing (if you want to call it "singing") in this song—good way to end this album. Well, there may be a better album than 5150 to come out in 1986—but I just can't see it myself.

MARIAN OVER IUSE, 2-1

By Brad Landweiten

Our Knights took a victory from IUSE Tuesday, 1-2 and were leading the second game when it was called on account of rain. Jeff Castner was the winning pitcher and went the distance to pitch the full game including striking out an impressive nine batters. Rod Wilhelm hit a home run over the right-centerfield fence, giving us a 2-0 lead, only to be answered by one run for IUSE.

The second game started out well, and we were leading 2-0 in the second inning when rain closed the game.

This victory leaves the team with a 10 and 7 record.

We have a couple of games at home Friday (today) against Chicago State, and they get underway at 1:00. Saturday we play in an away double-header and Sunday we play IUPU Fort Wayne in another double-header at home, again starting at 1:00. See you there.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To: The Carbon Editor

One of the most outrageous questions I am sometimes asked is "What can I do with an English major?" The question should be, "What can I not do with an English major?"

In recent days I have been doing some informal recruiting among Marian Freshmen and Sophomores who may not yet be committed to a major. If I have not talked with you, please contact me (home 923-9717). Needless to say, my colleagues are also available. Our hand-outs include "Twelve Good Reasons Why You Should Major In English At Marian College." There is not room in this note to list the twelve, but if I had to choose one word that summed up the reasons, it would be "flexibility."

A Marian College English major who has the ability to write well, to research intelligently, and to organize his thoughts has the skills that personnel managers prize.

I should add that we in the English Department know that in today's world, college students must have additional skills to go with their humanities background. We want you to be as goal-oriented as possible and to support your English major with courses in such fields as business, accounting, computer science, or some other area appropriate to your needs.

Several recent English majors at Marian have had double majors.

This note has not discussed what great literature does for the soul. We can save that for the classroom and personal chats with teachers. In the long run, literature itself will speak-- perhaps it has already beckoned-- to you.

FIGHTER SIDE

RANDY ROACH

by Pat Webb

Hello! I'm one of the 526,000 roaches who currently live at Doyle Hall. My life here is a very happy one and, more importantly, a very safe one. I never have to worry about any of those nice maintenance men spraying me with those nasty fumes that some of my friends have gotten (sob!) eliminated by. None of these friends lived at Doyle Hall, though, because maintenance men never do anything to us here! Such nice men!

The only people who try to hurt us are those vicious students! They're constantly trying to step on us and squash us! The funny thing about this is that whenever they squash one of us, they say, "Those *!@# maintenance men!" I don't understand it! Whenever we hear this we stand together and yell, "LONG LIVE MAINTENANCE!!! ONCE A ROACH LOVER, ALWAYS A ROACH LOVER!!!

Even though we have all these maintenance men helping to keep us alive, we could use your help! If you would care to make a donation or to join the "Save the Roaches Fan Club", get in touch with Mike Henderson or Saad. For a free t-shirt that says, "Roaches are My Life" contact Dr. Ray Craig at 99-ROACH.
