I have noticed in the past few weeks that there is an increasing interest in the sport of Professional Wrestling. I am rather impressed with this interest and I would like to tell all interested persons in Marian College and in the surrounding vicinities that Indianapolis is one of the largest professional wrestling capitals in the entire world and has been the scene of many championship matches.

Whenever a card is coming up that is scheduled either at the Coliseum or at Tyndall Armory, I will enter it into the Carbon as well as the results.

Here are the results of the last card at the Coliseum on February 13, 1971 which was almost my last match I would ever see again:

Kenny Dillinger defeated Fernandos Stamos
Paul Christy defeated Freddy Rogers
Angelo Poffo defeated Ivan Kalmikoff
Ernie "the Cat" Ladd pulverized Poffo in a later bout
Bobo Brazil and Hans Schmidt battled to a draw
Igor Vodik and Count Baron von Raschke each shared a fall until Igor was disqualified in the third fall when he and Ivan Kalmikoff, his manager, clobbered the Count which enabled Raschke to retain the title of "World Heavyweight Wrestling Champion". Raschke has held the title since March 7, 1970 when he defeated Dick the Bruiser in a bloodbath.

Wilbur Snyder and Yukon Moose Cholak (World Tag-Team Champions) were illegally defeated by the former World Tag-Team Champions, The Fabulous Kangaroos - Don Kent and Al Costello with their manager "Crybaby" George Cannon in a two out of three fall match. The Indiana State Wrestling Commission is currently holding the belts until a new championship match can be scheduled.

The next card at the Coliseum will be on March 6, 1971. Here is the main event; believe it or not! A SIX-MAN TAG-TEAM MATCH: Wilbur Snyder.

"LITTLE MARY SUNSHINE"

"Little Mary Sunshine", a musical comedy parodying some of the most celebrated operettas of American stage history, will be the next feature on the Marian College stage. The three-day run opens tonight at 8:00.

Saturizing such revered composers as Romberg, Kern, Friml, Strauss, and Herbert, "Little Mary Sunshine" is filled with innocence and virtue and goodness - all triumphant.

The scene is set in the Colorado Rockies (and Friml's "Indian Love Call") becomes "Colorado Love Call" where stalwart forest rangers, assorted bad men, and giggling girls from a finishing school all manage to inter-relate.

In the foregroud of this regimented chorus will be Chris Eckrich as the sweet and pure Little Mary, bravely cheerful though the mortgage is overdue, Dan Kernan plays the brave captain of the Rangers who will marry Mary if he returns safely from a dangerous and secret mission.

Charles Kishman plays the role of Brown Bear, a good and fatherly Indian. Yellow Feather - a bad and quite unbrotherly Indian - is portrayed by Jack O'Hara. Other roles are played by Marianne Able, Herb Finke, Joe Kempf and Ellen Sullivan.

Don Johnson is directing the production. Scenery and costumes are being handled by Jack O'Hara. Cantor Zalkin is serving as musical director.

LETTERS TO THE EDITORS

To the Editors:

After following your paper throughout the year, and reading all the tripe and petty nonsense that has been written under the heading of 'Carbon Editorial' (For what article written in your Rag is not some sort of editorial?), I feel that the CARBON has had a long enough under the wing of its Mother-Protector, the Phoenix. It is time that the editors of the CARBON assume a responsible position on this campus, and take initiative which is naturally a threat to the rights of a free press in this country; namely, that pernicious propaganda that passes itself off as the prolific protector of a liberated Society-pornography.

Psychology Today (Dec. 1970), states that there is no direct relationship between erotic materials and crimes of a sexual nature. Yet a respected member of the Vice Squad of a highly respected PoliceDept. in a distinguished Mid-Western metropolis denies this and says that, on the basis of personal experience, it does cause criminal behavior of some kind. Who are we to believe? Where is there a criterion to which we can turn to resolve this dilemma? Add to this the fact that we can receive at any time of any type of this erotic in the mail and it amounts to a humongous state of national moral and ethical decay. As the voice and conscience of M.C., I challenge you to help us, as students, solve this corrupting dilemma. Let us know what you, in your wisdom and experience, believe should be done about this disgusting situation!!

S.O.S.

Dear Friends:

American and South Vietnamese forces are moving deeper into Laos and South Vietnam's Vice President Ky indicated a land invasion of North Vietnam may be necessary. The invasion of Laos is the latest step in a series of escalations by President Nixon which include: bombings and efforts in Cambodia; bombing of sites in North Vietnam; and the futile Son Tay POW camp raid. Many of us are angered by these developments and we must stop and ask ourselves what we can do at this time.

Nixon's Vietnamization program, tied to U.S. troop withdrawal, is a plan to replace "white corpses with yellow corpses" in order to pacify the American people while he intensifies the war effort through mechanization, massive bombing, and continued control of South Vietnam through the Saigon government. Vietnamization has been tried before, has failed, and will fail again as long as the base of the opposition to American involvement is the peasant population. In order to win a military victory, and to maintain the Saigon administration, the United States government must commit itself to a course of massive annihilation of peasants and countryside.

Highly respected South Vietnamese citizens have spoken out against U.S. involvement in their country and against the unpopular Thieu-Ky regime. An increasing number of students, women, religious leaders, workers, and government officials have been demonstrating against the war. Four weeks ago six million Vietnamese participated in public "prayers for peace." Millions of South Vietnamese are publicly showing their support for the Provisional Revolutionary Government's position despite intense political repression from the Saigon government.

Out of this dissension in this country and in Vietnam grows the People's Peace Treaty. This treaty originated in a meeting of American students from the South Vietnamese National Union of Students, the North Vietnamese National Union of Students, and the South Vietnamese Liberation Student Union this past December. This treaty is a declaration of the fact that the people of our three countries are at peace. The treaty is not merely a petition for a peace but is an individual commitment to ending the war.

Last Sunday the Marian College Student Board also ratified the People's Peace Treaty. Other student governmental and non-student groups are doing the same thing all across the country. Every person in the Marian community should also see if they can make their own commitment to peace through the People's Peace Treaty. Copies of the treaty and some general information on the war are available outside the auditorium for anyone interested. For further information, call Ext. 325, 525, or 529.

Peace is coming, because the people are making the peace.

Dear Editors:

I can see a real traffic problem on this campus. The main entrance on Cold Springs Road is dangerous! Either those leaving the campus go charging out of that entrance (exit?) without regard to incoming traffic, or incoming traffic makes a grand entrance ignoring the possibility of an exiting vehicle. Since we already have an "exit only" south of this entrance, how about making it "entrance only", or at least widening it to facilitate two cars entering and exiting at the same time; a solved traffic situation. Dear Editors:

On March 1 at 8:00 p.m., Doyle Hall Council and Dan O'Brien, president of the Marian Alumni, are sponsoring the program Wanna Job. The purpose of this program is to give interested students, seniors in particular, an opportunity to find jobs.

Speakers will be Frank Velikan on teaching and the current salaries; Mike Moon will speak on business and industry; and John McCord, of our counseling service, will speak on School and its opportunities; Jan Goss of government jobs, and Dan O'Brien on the tremendous opportunities available in the insurance world. There will also be a speaker on the availability of jobs in science and math, but as of yet, he hasn't been appointed. Pertinent information on how to make the most of your job interview will also be distributed. The placement office is now making forms for seniors to complete; these will be put into a large file, so that anyone coming to campus seeking someone to fill a job position can be advised immediately to whom is available. The job market is really going to be stiff this year, especially if the U.S. pulls out of Vietnam. Therefore, it is to your advantage to fill out this registration form as soon as possible so that your name is among these that can be found in these files.

Areas where you can find out who's coming to Marian for job interviews are: the placement office in the SAC building, the main bulletin board in Marian Hall, or call extension 262. The bulletin board in the Perc also has information about job opportunities.

If you think that there's any possibility that you may be interested in a position, with a particular company, go ahead and take their interview, just getting the experience of the interview makes it worth the trouble.

STRAIGHTENING THINGS OUT

I have been doing some mediating on my article in the last issue of the Carbon and I realize that I have reasoned inductively instead of deductively. I should have included my article that people have a right to do what they want and that it is no concern of others as to what these people do, provided that it is not illegal, not contrary to set rules and regulations made in our society, d does not enable innocent persons to get hurt or suffer as a result of "really living it".
