I've been so goddamned bored
And there ain't nothin' worth doin'
Old Uncle Sam's standin' at my door
And I'm askin' myself who am I foolin'.

And a fuck is just another screw
That's why I got dem College Boy Blues.

Now most of the time I'm drunk or I'm stoned
Cause keepin' my head clear don't make things straight
You know it's hard goin' forward but I can't go home
So like the fools in Godot I'll sit here and wait.

And a fuck is just another screw
That's why I got dem College Boy Blues.

Oh, people I tell you I ain't lyin'
We're all sheep out on the foam
And if you believe this song needs justifyin'
Just put on your walkin' shoes and let your mind roam.

And a fuck is just another screw
That's why I got dem College Boy Blues.

Mae East

(Note: Wednesday's activities are included on Tuesday due to the negligence of Mae East!)
The first meeting of the newly elected Student Board was held May 10 at 7:30 p.m. John Purcell reported that the Social Council will elect their secretary and treasurer this week.

Day Student Representatives, Patty Donahue, stated that she has placed suggestion boxes in the Perc, so that she can keep in closer contact with those she represents. Clare Hall reported that May 23 is the date scheduled for the senior women’s party. Also this week nominations are being accepted to fill Clare Hall committees.

A report by Jim Herbe concerning the last Faculty Council meeting, contained some new changes. It was decided that any course could be repeated by a student, no matter what grade he has earned. Another change was in the structure of senior comprehensive exams. Now it will be left up to the department, whether they will give a comprehensive exam or else provide a seminar. Concerning the campus film policy, it was decided that any film could be shown as long as it does not go against state and federal laws. Also in regards to advertising a movie, a rating of the movie must be presented somewhere in the advertisement.

In new business, nominations were being accepted for Board Committees, and student publications. Nominees are:

Student Services: Ed McCord, Dennis Dubois
Donna Schmink, and Rita Blessing
Carbon: Steve Donahue and Chris Wood
Fioretti: Sherry Meyer and Carol Wethington
Phoenix: John Costerisan and Cathy Andre

Herbe stated that nominations will remain open for one more week.

A $150.00 allocation for the Indiana Draft Council, introduced by Steve Starks, was tabled until the next meeting. Steve explained that Marian’s support was needed, since students could benefit from draft counseling provided by this organization. A representative from the organization will speak at the next meeting of the Student Board.

The Conduct Appeals Constitution was also discussed. Jim Herbe reported that the committee will be composed of 2 administrators, appointed by Marian’s president, 3 faculty members proposed by the Faculty Council, and 4 students selected by the Student Board. The appeals that they will handle are:

1. Punishment too severe.
2. Due process not fulfilled
3. New evidence
4. Unjust treatment

The Board decided that it should be stated in the constitution that Student Services must abide by the decision formulated by the Appeals Committee, to insure the effectiveness of Conduct Appeals.

SPECIAL NOTICE

The Senior Class Party will be held on Friday May 21 starting at 5 o’clock. Food, booze, bands, brawls, and all the trivia that goes along with Senior Parties. Remember, this is the only official school event that sanctions the unsanctionable.

To the Marian Community:

I would like to thank everyone for making the Lebanese Dinner and the Marfo Thomas dress raffle such a success. The Gilbert Tutungi Memorial Scholarship Fund is over the $10,000 now, and without your support and help this would not have been possible. The winners of the dress and ties are: 1st prize Yvette Razouk, 2nd prize Barbara Hingten, 3rd prize Mrs. June Dayton, 4th prize Mrs. G. 11ick.

Many thanks and May God Bless You All.

Huguette Tutungi

REPEATING COURSES

Recently there has been some controversy over the change in academic policy that now permits the repetition of courses regardless of the previous grade. A small minority, the pseudo-intellectuals of Marian, went so far as to start a petition. Such drastic measures deserve some attention.

These so called concerned students feel that if their friends receive a B in a course they received an A in, their A is reduced in some way known only to them—when their friends repeat their course and receive an A. First, an A is an A. There is no way of getting around that. Repetition of course is not going to affect the value of an A, B, or any other grade.

Second, with the bachelor and major requirements as many as there are now, it is difficult to even think of repeating courses. The policy change was originally geared to aid those that fail or D. I fail to see where that intent is overshadowed by the fact that it applies also to those who are not in any difficulty. This addition of C, B, A were added for the purpose of non-discrimination.

So to this educated elite let me say that I feel our concern in the academic areas should be one of learning as much as possible in this short four years and not with grade competition.

UPBEAT CARE-A-THON

May 17, 18, 19

3 Days Of Continuous Fun, Entertainment, Surprises + Caring

2 Am Nites
Representative Wm. Anderson, D-Tenn., will be the featured speaker at a rally of Hoosiers for PEACE on Friday, May 21, at 8:00 p.m. at the Indiana Central College Gymnasium, 4001 Otterbein Avenue. Last year 3500 heard Senator Fulbright. This year 4500 are expected to hear Re. Anderson. IU-IU sold over 300 tickets for the Fulbright rally—the most of any group in the state. IU at Bloomington sold 30. Tickets are $2.00 each and may be purchased from Mr. William Doheiri, History Department.

Rep. Anderson last year discovered the political prisoners of our South Vietnam 'aliens' are kept in tigers' cages. A former Commander of the "Nautilus", Rep. Anderson has decided that the war in Vietnam must be ended now, and he joins us in asking, "Mr. President, Set The Date."

FROM: ONE CARBON EDITOR

Background: Violins . . .

Be it known that for one full year I have been planning my farewell address as co-editor of the CARBON. Now that the time has come, I have nothing to say. No unkind words—no kind words. It's all rather anti-climactic, I'll miss many aspects of Marian College, but I'm truly glad to leave. It's time.

We've made a lot of enemies this year. "I'll say!!" The CARBON has attempted to be a sincere forum for all to express their various opinions—both popular and unpopular. This goal—we hope most will agree—was achieved.

Marian has a crucial year ahead. The new president and his effect on the college will have much to do with Marian's future. To quote Kenneth Clark, "I'd like to be joyful, but at most, I'm optimistic." I did tell you I had nothing to say.

TO THE MARIAN COMMUNITY:

Back in 1968 some concerned faculty and students at Marian College came to a conclusion about several important items. Those items revolved around this community involving itself in the broader economic, social and political community; making education relevant; and utilizing untapped energy and talent in both communities.

That conclusion became an idea and that idea a reality—Operation Upbeat. It began with 14 high school students, 7 college students and a handful of Marian College faculty and alumni. Living together for eight weeks those persons began one of the most personable and active programs on Marian's campus. But a strange thing occurred to that group. Dreams mean nothing without money in our society, perhaps a sad comment but a realistic one. So money had to be raised or a "dream deferred."

The Upbeat Care-a-thon began in 1968. It was one of the primary sources for the beginning and since then continuing of Operation Upbeat. A kind of tradition has been created at Marian with the Care-a-thon. But its only coincidental that it takes place in "May." And I wouldn't characterize that tradition in a traditional sense. It's been built on vitality, concern, commitment and idealism, all supposed niceties of the "young generation." But the programs has maturity and a sense of justice usually descriptive of a more settled generation. That tradition is you who maintain that in spite of all the injustices, bigotry and prejudice that really is out there only they can do something about it. Upbeat is a way, a start, a tradition we must uphold. And once again we need you to celebrate that tradition and keep it going.

To date no federal or local funds have been given to us. We are looking for some help from a local agency. But that help is (cont. on page 4, col. 1) not nearly enough to pay all the counselors and academic staff let alone purchase all the material needed for Upbeat. Presently all of our counselors will be working for $600 or less. And the entire academic faculty will not receive any salary.

I encourage you strongly to come by, stay awhile and help us out.

LAST WORDS

I really don't have to tell you it's been one hell of a year and I'd be lying if I said it was fun. But one good thing did come of it. It has been a year of great significance to me and has had a profound effect on my life. It has brought with it an invaluable lesson, perhaps the most important one I'll ever learn, and it doesn't involve books. Maybe I learned it too well. You see, the lesson was about people, white people specifically. You have given me a new vision, much clearer than it's ever been before. I see the world now in its true perspectives, for what it really is. I am no longer discouraged. Rather I have a new courage, one that I hope I can instill in others as well. You have given me the ground work for what I hope will prove valuable. I know now what we are up against and the massive task that lies before us. However, I leave here in hopes that someday my courage, along with that same courage of others, will have something to do with conquering that task victoriously.

I know some of you nuns who are reading this are thinking about the so-called "hostile overtones" of this message and are really wondering where I'm coming from. But I can only say that there are those of you who have greatly aided and abetted the deep feelings I have come to possess in such a short time. However, I must also here admit that I sincerely feel I am justified in informing you of just what the real education is that you're giving here. I'm an example of it and I can only hope that others profit so well. As I said the lesson has been invaluable to me and will be cherished and remembered as well as it was learned. I wish I could say all I wish to say but circumstances do not permit. Besides, things that are left unsaid perhaps have the greatest effect.

I leave you with only these words:
Those who didn't see, won't
Those who want to see will look harder
Those who do see are fortunate
but only if they keep their eyes open.

E. Ransom

SPEAKING OUT FOR NEXT YEAR

Upon recieving official appointment from the student Publication Board and the Student Board, Chris Wood and I will assume the editorship of the CARBON. Anyone who would be interested in being part of the staff of this weekly rag would be greatly appreciated. We would like to set our staff up soon after returning to school next year. Anyone who would like to write for us on a regular basis or who would like to type please get in touch.

I would like to say at this time that I have enjoyed being part of the staff this year and I would like to thank Dave Soots and Elaine Ransom for giving me the chance to do my weekly cartoons and the freedom to do them in the way I felt they should be done. To the reader thanks a lot. To the people who didn't get a chance to draw don't worry; there's always next year.
