Scooby-Baba, Cika Hnnnnnn?!
An open letter to the Marian Community:

This letter is in reference to your article concerning the residents of Tyrone Drive in the Vol. 40, October 3 issue of the "Carben".

Paragraph 1: All of the residents of Tyrone Dr. have driveways and garages in which to keep their vehicles. If they elect to park on the street, they must take their chances.

Paragraph 2: The land referred to is the property of Marian College. (Look out, here come those damned telephone poles!)

Paragraph 3: I have also noticed cars parked on Tyrone, but I have never witnessed any evidence of drug sales, just some heavy romance.

Paragraph 4: I have never personally witnessed a "party" of this caliber taking place. There may be an occasional orgy in my driveway— but these are understandable— after all, college students must also relieve their frustrations!

Paragraph 5: I am also Catholic and I was a student at Marian at one time. I don't appreciate people cutting across my lawn, or some of the screaming, yelling, or singing we experience sometimes. But, I recall that I have done these same things at one time or another myself.

Paragraph 6: It is true that my brother is an I.P.D. officer, which is apparent by the patrol car in the driveway, but I am not, nor do I have any intention of becoming a police officer. I am employed by General Motors Corporation, Chevrolet Division—a fact well known by Mr. Phelps.

Paragraph 7: No comment.

Paragraph 8: Bullshit!

Paragraph 9: Sick!

Paragraph 10: By the time this is printed, the fence will be repaired which will eliminate the problem of students crossing my lawn. (I hope.)

Paragraph 11: Very good fatherly advice!

Paragraph 12: In this particular household, problems are taken care of in a mature attitude, and the police will be notified only as a last resort.

The main reason this letter was written is because I had no knowledge of the interview nor did I give permission, verbal or written, to use my name in the article referred to.

It is true that we have, at one time or another, been inconvenienced by some Marian students, but we were aware of this before I bought our home and I expect it occasionally.

So, when you see me on campus, don't think that I am going to shake you down and bust you. My Irish Setter is not trained to sniff out pet and/or help me to uphold the law in this area. This is not my function. We just want to be neighbors that enjoy being around young people, instead of rednecks or ego trippeRs and status seekers in another neighborhood.

Respectfully Yours,

Tony Vester
2640 Tyrone Dr.

Jill is a Marian College student and a nice girl. She lives in Clare Hall and likes it. She does her homework every night and therefore gets good grades. This is how everyone knows that she is smart and does what she should. She likes school and always has because her performance proves that she is superior.

She chose Marian College because it gave her a chance to get away from home and experience freedom, without having to abandon her values due to peer pressure. She had heard that at other learning establishments the girls were pressured into doing things that they didn't want to do because no boys would ask them out anymore if they didn't. She heard that at Marian no girls do anything that they know is wrong, so she wouldn't have to either because it seems that under the accepted system the boys have no alternative.

Well, today is Friday, and Jill is going to drink 3 beers and go to a party fashionably drunk. She has a lot of boys around school because she looks good in comparison to the other girls in Clare Hall. She likes them all, but no one of them enough to make the others leave her alone.

She thinks college life at Marian is fun and she loves it. She has found her true identity here.

Maybe we'll visit Jill later and see how she's coming.

Billy

When Things Are Rotten

When we left our poor heroes last time, they faced trials and tribulations in the Sure Wild Forest. The plague had been driven away by the merry men of Cinclaintus, but still the men were not themselves. They were still troubled by the Sheriff's evil plan of bulldozing their tract of land known as FIT, and thus spread, the men aimlessly throughout the Sure Wild Forest.

Seeing his dilemma, once again Sir Baby Face Walter called on the Big E, for consultation. The Big E, looking over the situation saw an answer. Knowing the spirit and gaming of the men, he felt that a con test was what was needed to bring the men back to their senses. He would coach the men of PIT to challenge the best that the Sheriff could offer.

When the Sheriff heard of this, his pride became as great his head hurt. He could not succumb to the challenge of the Forest.

The stage was set. At sunrise on the sixth day of the Octoberfest, both teams came to the field of SAC (Sure-Wild Activities Center). The first contest slated was to be that of verbal abuse. The Sheriff's visiting team came to bat first. Their verbage could not pierce the shield of the Big E. The home team came to the stand; the first to shoot was High Heels Curtly. He fielded everything that was thrown at him and managed to carry the score even into the second phase.

The second contest was about to begin. The Sheriff called time and demanded that they play by his rules, but the Big E, retorted, "You knowest that thou cannot ask something like that." The Sheriff persisted, "But still, it is the opinion of the opinion that it shall be thus!"
And with this greeting we dined in the land of men. We tested the men of PIT and vowed to hear the final tally. The Sheriff declared it in favor of a team called the Zipper Heads be that team. So true, as the Heads slammed their way past the defending champions Falls of Fire 10-7, to become the new I.M. softball champs.

Now a change of sports, if you don’t mind (I was going to change anyway). Sunday offered the most vicious and daring of all sports at Marvin, (excluding of course, the Mug Rack) I.M. football. In the opening game the defending champs Bad Joes just got by a very promising Nads team 15-7. In this well-played game, first year Q.B. Ken Ollier hit all league and Mike Rarely for 2 T.D.’s. The next game saw the old pro Bill Doherty get his arm out of the moth balls and Mitred the Freshman Prophils for 4 T.D. passes. In the 25-0 final Bill hit speedy Dan Dunveant for two T.D.’s.

In the final game I. Eta Thii ran away from the Outlaws 32-0. In this one Q.B. Dave Zapp hit Dan Boone for 2 T.D.’s.

I would like to thank my eyes and ears, Tom Schreth and Colette Stark for keeping me up to date with the latest happenings while I’m on my short vacation at St. Vincent’s Resort. See you all in 2 weeks.

They can out ya and it doesn’t hurt, Mellow

Women's Intramural Volleyball

Regular season volleyball has come to an end. The leaders are: league A-Schuck’s Garden and in league B-B.S Bombers. On Monday Schuck’s Garden downs the Fruits in 3 games and the Klutzes beat Wazuri in 3 games also. Wednesday there was a play-off game between Schuck’s and the Klutzes and again there was a close, exciting set of 5 games with Schuck’s coming out on top. In league B the Fruits defeated Mixed Bag in 2 close games to claim 2nd place. The B.S. Bombers went through the season undefeated. The El Ed’s didn’t win a game all season as they were dowed by Hell If I Know (their 1st. win). But don’t worry girls, there is still a chance for all teams as a tournament starts after Mid-Term break. Good luck to all!

On Wednesday, Oct 22 there will be refreshments at the games. They will be bought with the money that the teams handed in with the rosters. So everybody come down to the gym for lots of fun!

Game of Week: El Ed’s vs. Hell If I Know.

[Crux Corner] Only in America can the underdog have half a chance. And only at Marvin U. can Editorial

Student Services is the home away from home for one of Marian's most significant administrators. Dean Bill Woodman came to Marian at the beginning of the second semester of the 1973 - 74 school year. His arrival was not immediately noticed by the student body probably because the Dean is not a very noticeable man. He is like a lurking shadow hanging ominously in the background.

No Dean of Student Services has ever been very popular with the students. Resentment because of his role of prosecutor is part of the job. But Woodman seems to be more unpopular than his predecessor.

Woodman's most impressive achievement so far has been the initiation of the Judicial Panel. It is quite an accomplishment because it took the duty of judging college policy offenders from the Dean and placed it on a body of people of which three out of seven are students. As a result, the sentences are in proportion with the rules that are broken.

The Judicial Panel made Dean Woodman a popular man for a while, however, as time passed it eventually backfired. Student offenses have become a major topic of campus gossip. Behind each case brought to trial is the lurking presence of the Dean. The Panel has taken the burden of deciding sentences off the Dean's shoulders, but it has emphasized his role as investigator and prosecutor.

The Dean's unpopularity is intensified even more by his personality. Many people feel Dean Woodman finds it difficult to communicate with students and vice versa. When he walks through the Caf or the Perc, he glances suspiciously out of the corner of his eye at the people around and mutters hellos to the familiar.

The man is not paid to be popular, but it would make his job easier. The name 'Student Services' implies that there are direct dealings between the Dean and the students. Cooperation in such cases is essential. If the two parties cannot get along, the road is going to be long, hard and rocky.
