Camel Jockeys Return Planned For Today ... Make Them Feel Welcome
TO THE MASSES

Dear Men of Doyle,

It has been a week of occasion. Confusion, anxiety and decisions have been ghastly upon each and everyone of us. Well, I've been told that just the story of life, forever unfolding. The most startling bit of news to reach me was most distressing and from an unexpected source.

It seems some freshmen (I assume) have chosen to release their adolescent anxiety upon the campus security by pelting Bill Meloche with pumpkins. They did this because Meloche wouldn't let them enter Clare Hall on a panty raid. He was, in fact, doing what he is paid to do. The pumpkin hustler broke the luggage rack atop Meloche's car. Now, as a direct reaction, Trooper Meloche is on a traffic ticket rampage. He has issued close to fifty in one week. Beside the fact that there is no way in hell a person could fulfill any sexual fantasy worth imaging by running through Clare, the pumpkin hurler is now causing the entire student community to suffer.

What's to be done? It is not likely the fugitive will hand himself over to the authorities as pumpkins are always tossed on them. A different course of action must be pursued. It might be possible to out wait Meloche but I doubt it. The man lives with a vengeance. I suggest that he be appeased by fixing the luggage rack. This can be achieved without anyone feeling a direct influence on the wallet. Utilizing the funds in Doyle Hall treasury is the key. Opening up the miscellaneous monies and repairing the damage might stop the parking tickets. At any rate, Meloche will be on good terms for any future unfortunate occurrence, and it won't hurt anyone or make anyone poorer.

My plea goes to the Doyle Hall Board. The community is suffering and you have a possible solution within your grasp. Now it is time to do your job. Remember, presidents come and go but Meloche always was and always will be.

Dear Carbon,

We were under the impression that the Carbon was not solely a weekly rag sheet. However, this aspect of it seems to have superceded its role as a weekly newsletter. So far this year we have had no legitimate complaints. Things seem to be getting accomplished through the proper channels and through the hard work of some dedicated students. If finding little to complain about makes us apathetic seniors, perhaps we are. We prefer to think that working within the system achieves the students' needs rather than constant railing.

Also, we question the validity of the Carbon using space-filling articles rather than printing letters submitted by students wanting to express their views. Moreover, if "the views in this publication are those of the individual writer and do not necessarily reflect those of Marian College", then we feel that those who write articles are obligated to sign their name(s).

Dear Carbon,

Most everyone has probably seen two small cats roaming around the campus for the past month. They, like most animals who appear on campus, have either lost their direction upon returning home or were turned out by unwary owners. I am inclined to believe that most of the small animals we see have no real home. It is also undoubtedly true that some of these stray animals, including these two, offend some individuals on this campus. Until very recently, I assumed that young adults who attend schools of higher learning have enough intelligence to realize that defenseless animals of this nature are in a slightly higher category than vegetables, minerals, or the like. I was undoubtedly appalled to find one of these cats thrown into one of the clothes dryers in the basement of Clare Hall. I believe in fun and games and practical jokes, but when a living creature is involved a line should be drawn. Everyone would agree that Marian College should not be a sanction for homeless animals but until someone takes the time to take these animals to a more suitable place, i.e. the Humane Society, they should not be brutally mistreated by the residents of Marian College.

The 1976 regular season play of intramural volleyball has come to an end. All the teams had at least one victory as the Cuddly Ones picked up their first win Monday 16-14, 15-7 over the Itchin Babes. Michelle M. had 12 points for the losers in game 1. The Infamous Gang had no trouble putting away the later Babes in 2 games 15-2, 15-8. The Gang had fairly distributed scoring. The last Div. B game was an exciting one between Wazuri and the Dipshoots. This put the Dipshoots in first place as the only undefeated team in Div. B.

Div. A started off with Stingels Squadron shooting down F.O.X. 15-10, 15-3. Jane A. had 12 pts in the 1st game and Alice had 9 pts. the 2nd for Stingels Squadron. RAPID outclassed the Boxers 15-7 15-6. Everyone scored for RAPID in the match. F-Troop easily downed 15-6,15-5 to be the only undefeated team in Div. A. MBS had 9pts. for the Troop in game 1, while Frank and Tina each had 6 pts in game 2. The final regular season standings are below.

Wed. the playoffs started and F-Troop squared off against the Dipshoots. All 3 games were long and hard and the Dipshoots came out ahead 15-10,4,15-15-9. Clare (you'd think I could type my own name! ed.) had 9 pts. the 1st game and Pris scored 6 in the third for the victors. Tina had 8 pts for the Troop in the middle game. On the other court Stinger's Squadron and the Infamous Gang (the 2nd place teams) were fighting it out. Stinger's came out on the short end 12-15, 14-16. The Gang had very even scoring points in game 2.

EDITORIAL

Last night I wandered into the I'M' gym to find out if the heat had been turned on (and I'm happy to report that it had) and was dismayed by what I saw. The intramural gym was bustling with activity, but unfortunately it was not Marian students who were participating. It seems that every year this problem arises, so I guess this year should be no different.

It is my understanding that this facility exists for the benefit of Marian College students, faculty, and their guests only. Last night there had to be at least 15 to 20 people who did not fit into any of the above categories. People who did not have proper identification should not have been permitted entrance to the building. There is a work study student there who is supposed to be checking I.D. so as to eliminate this problem. Where was he?

It seems feasible that the security guard on duty in the early evenings could periodically check the gym and expel those who do not belong. Since the gym is open from 6:00 until 10:00, why couldn't the guard check it at about 7:00 and then again around 9:00? I believe that this would eliminate the problem and make the I'M' gym more accessible to Marian students.

This brief dissertation is in response to an article by Terri and Pris found elsewhere in the Carbon. For the sake of brevity, we will simply enumerate our feelings in the most concise of manners.

1) If so far this year you have no legitimate complaints, what is the purpose of your letter? Your reasoning appears nebulous at best.

2) What is getting accomplished through proper channels? Your lack of specifics makes this statement simply a meaningless, vague generalization.

3) What articles do you believe were inserted solely for the purpose of filling space?

4) When during our CD-Editorship has the Carbon failed to print a letter written by a student who wanted to express his views? We have not, to date, found ourselves buried beneath a wealth of literary contributions.

5) Your letter is written in such a disjointed and incoherent manner as to render it nearly unintelligible. Next time, and we do hope there will be a next time, please make that extra effort necessary to put forth a well-formulated, understandable letter.

6) We hope you are still our friends and thanks for the filler!

JOKE OF THE WEEK

Seems that Churchill, wobbly from a bout with brandy, was leaning for support against a marble pillar in a palatial mansion where he had been a dinner guest. A haughty, middle-aged dowager walked up to the careening statesman. "Mr. Churchill, you are drunk," she muttered contemptuously. "Yes, you are right," agreed Mr. Churchill. "But you, madame, are ugly. And in the morning I shall be sober."
Recently a large number of students were confronted with a shower of parking tickets, the majority of which were probably undeserved. This student believes that our security guard was only doing his job by issuing the tickets. What is in question here is what was he doing the eight weeks prior to this flood of tickets? Could it have been a chain of good evening movies or a soft couch in one of the mansions? These eight weeks saw just as many or more violations and few noticeable tickets to conform these violators parking habits. If a law is not consistently enforced, what good is that law?

There is a rumor that Mr. Meloche’s ticket spree was possibly due to the vandalism of his car by masked culprits throwing a pumpkin. I feel this was a foolish act on the part of these students. This student, after attending Marian’s first traffic appeals court of the year inquired into the matter. He was quickly informed that the tickets were not a result of revenge, but were due to a crack-down issued by the controllers office. For those of you who wish to appeal your tickets, you have exactly ten days after the ticket was issued to do so. Appeal forms may be obtained in the office of the Dean of Student Services, SAC. You may save yourself some time and perhaps grounds for an appeal if you read pages 66 and 67 of your student handbook. I did, and found out something very interesting. Under “Campus Driving and Parking Regulations,” A. 2, P. 67, it states, “Parking is permitted only where yellow parking lines are painted or where a sign designates the area as a parking area.” If you got a ticket for parking in the yellow lined area around the circle of the 30th street parking lot of Doyle, this is possible grounds for an appeal. And be careful men, to my knowledge there are no signs or lines in the 30th street front parking lot.
