The views of this publication are those of the individual writer and do not necessarily reflect those of Marian College!!
I know that this action may be unacceptable by some, but the A'SC.V.F. is overdoing it quite a bit. After all, the ors into the lounge with that obnoxious sign than if one or the one in the two couples were week when there was no visitation and during the days
sign gives the impression that the whole college is immoral, or doesn't belong in such a public place. HOWEVER;
of a few people.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I would greatly appreciate the return of the book, "Oriental Philosophies" by John M. Koller, that was lifted from my car. I have reason to believe that the theft occurred at Marian, as Marian college WAS the only place where I haven't always taken the pains to lock my car. I've learned my lesson and from this time forward the car will be locked at all times so as not to tempt those who do not possess P.S. I just wanted to get my point across, Mr. Security Guard.

TO MARIAN COLLEGE STUDENTS

Thinking about the 5 month's experience of Marian College life, I wish to comment: I feel that everyone could be considered and friendlier with all foreigners. Consider this: they have left their families and friends to study in America and to make American friends.

Having associated with some of them, I learned that they want to be included in our lives- not excluded or frowned upon. Because they are living here in America, they are experiencing a different culture, American luxuries, and freedom. Of course they have reasons for feeling unsure of themselves, and feeling anger or sadness towards us.

I acknowledge that there has been several bad experiences with some foreigners, but we must give each other more than one chance.

I know that this action may be unacceptable by some, but I only ask: that we must extend not only our hands, but our hearts to the foreiners.

TO WOMENS BASKETBALL FANS

Special thanks from Elaine, Sharon and Holly for the gifts.
Thanks for your support and thoughtfulness.

ANOTHER TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

We think that something must be said about the Clare Hall Lounge and the A.S.C.V.F.. It has been exactly one week since the "Great Posting" and it seems to have done the trick!! The lounge has become once again a place where anyone would feel comfortable to sit and visit, To a few, the tactics to which we ultimately resorted were somewhat "crass" and "undignified" (we had even worse in mind) but the A.S.C.V.F. felt they were well deserved.
The first suggestion placed in the CARBON two weeks ago did not help the situation. So, two mentions were made in the Notable- to no avail. Finally came that wonderful poster. It was NEVER the purpose of the A.S.C.V.F. to condemn the actions of the majority of the couples who frequented the lounge. The A.S.C.V.F. was disgusted by the very few who took advantage, practically to the point of using the couches as beds. Thankfully, this high degree of P.D.A. (public display of affection) has ceased, and hopefully, it will not reappear!!

Not one member of the A.S.C.V.F. will complain against kissing- sure is a lot of fun!! But couples caressing on the couches in Clare Hall Lounge can be crude.(Catch that alliteration!!)

Love and Kisses (but not caresses)

The A.S.C.V.F.

TO THE MASSES:

We are all aware of the energy problem and for the most part everyone is trying to do their part in conservation.
However, there seems to be a certain security guard (we won't mention any names, but he drives a beige Pacer.)
who is trying to turn our campus into a point of darkness where any type of existence is impossible. Don't get me wrong!! I keep my lights off as much as possible and try not to use electrical appliances much, but I find it impossible to study or get dressed in complete darkness, as certain security guards expect me to do. (If I did get dressed in the dark, I would probably end up looking like him!!!)

A CONCERNED STUDENT

P.S. I just wanted to get my point across, Mr. Security Guard.
P.S.S. The Ghost turned the lights on in the Auditorium!!!

SEE PETER REPORTS:

Evening, amigos y amigas. I can't believe tonight is opening night!! Also, the play starts tonight. "The Importance of Being Earnest" hits the boards at nine, with a cast party funded by the sewer system afterwards. (Only kidding, mein Direktor!!) The exhibition takes place in Peine Arena, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday at 8:00p.m. Go. And may the Norse be with you (Jah, ah bane good, darlings-- Margo.)

The Opera is continuing it's rehearsals, as well as the Black History Week plays. But, no one has told me anything about them, so I won't mention them. So there, Nyah!!
(How infantile- Bette.) (Get back in your closet, Bette-- See Peter.) Well, until we meet again--

Conference on THIRD WORLD WOMEN AND DEVELOPMENT

The changing concept of the role of women in terms of individual, familial, community, national, and international dimensions is essentially a question of fundamental human rights.

There will be a conference designed to help Hoosier women and men become more aware of the broad context of Third World women's current condition(s) and to clarify the underlying issues confronting these women.

In addition, the presentations and discussions will assist the participants in identifying their own development and human rights values in comparing/ contrasting these cross-culturally with persons (primarily women) in the Third World.

Presentations and discussions will focus on the instrumental roles(s)
Third World women can and do play in the economic social, cultural, and national development of their nations.

They plan on using them to help the Reedy.

Saturday afternoon there will be a trip to the children's museum and that night there will be a movie "Seven Alone Again." Special Mass is under consideration.

Meeting adjourned at 5:10.

Respectfully Submitting,

SENIORS!!!!!!!!

At the October meeting of the Board of Trustees, the topic of having a student speaker at graduation was brought up and O.K.'d. A recent survey of class members was conducted by the class members to see if the class wanted a student speaker. Approximately 80% of the class was contacted and of this number, approximately 75% were in favor of having a student speaker. Nominations will be taken in the Information office Friday, February 24 on Monday, February 27. Seniors will vote for a student speaker from the list of those nominated. Please give this some thought and nominate a person that you think will do a good job of representing the class. Self-nominations are acceptable also.

THAT FRIDAY NIGHT FEVER

The power that ignited the fire of rock music and set the whole hall ablaze with that dynamic sound was none other than the Indianapolis rock master — Roadmaster. The fever that hit all present at Marian Hall last Friday night was due to something to remember. That rock concert organized by the Sophomore class rocked the Marian stage, shook the Marian building, and took the audience by storm, so much so that many of them could not just sit tight on their seat. Instead, they let themselves loose to feast their feet with that pulsating beat. This neat treat did meet the fee they paid to the last cent. A night well spent, all parted high spirited.

That spirit we owe to the Sophomore class spirit. The first of its kind ever to be tried on this campus, it sure did spell SUCCESS fairly. Let's keep it up!!

DEAR GRETTA CARBO-

Dear Gretta,

I have a roommate who does not go home on weekends. This becomes a difficult situation when I bring a girl to my room because this guy has no friends he can visit. He always leaves if I am with a girl, but spends this time in the lobby or the Library. He doesn't show dissatisfaction but I feel more guilty about making him leave than I do about the girl. Any comments please?

Never Alone

Dear Never,

May be you are experiencing guilt in this situation because you suspect that your roommate FEELS more dissatisfaction than he SHOWS. Why does he feel that he HAS to leave the room every time a girl comes up? Why don't you talk it over with him!!! If he's really lonely, send him over to me!!!!!!

Dear Gretta,

I enjoy photography and God knows my studies keep me busy, but something is missing. I would like to start a collection of some kind of novelty items. Any suggestions?

Busy Busy Body Body

Dear BBBB,

Try the Theatre department — I've heard they have a few novelties of their own! If that doesn't suit your tastes, the security branch has a few relics. Or the Art department — I hear they have a new Pole — or the Music dept. — or the Library, they have some NOVEL things there! But seriously, I think that you should nuclear fallout!!!!!

COMMUNITY IN A CITY

On the street we two pass. I do not know you. I did not see if you are fat/thin, dark/light, young/old.

If we should pass again within the hour, I would not know it.

Yet — I am committed to love you.

You are part of my city, my universe, my being. If you were not here to pass me by, a piece would be missing from my jigsaw — puzzle day.

The room doth spin
and my eyes do burn.
My stomach rolls and I fall from bed,
The curse of the cosmos come when the telephone rings,
and suddenly my future was dim.
I find my socks outside the window,
my pants on my roommates face.
Where's my wallet and my keys?
What's this splotch on my leg?
I crawl to the john and gaze in the mirror,
I grab some chow and stumble to my seat,
I grab some chow and stumble to my seat,
and my eyes do burn.
I grab some chow and stumble to my seat,

SEARCHING THROUGH OUT LIFE

Searching through out night
the bat looks for new food,
someone help his plight.

Eating worms in summer,
the robin feeds her younglings.
Birds shit on my head.
The snow blows all over covering deep the surroundings,
blanket to preserve.
