EDITORIAL:
Marian College has for a long time had a reputation for being boring. If you haven't said so yourself, you have undoubtedly heard others say the same. If it is true, then we as students are as much at fault as the people in charge.

We as students have the power to get things changed, but only if we work together can we wield such power. Right now we have a very real opportunity to do this very thing, join in a common cause and dispel the prevailing apathetic atmosphere.

Last night, Thursday, Feb. 1, there was a meeting of interested students, faculty, and administrators aimed at finding out what the problems of Marian College are, and to propose solutions to the same. People from all facets of the Marian Population are needed, urged, encouraged to lend their support, help, and most importantly their views and ideas regarding both what is wrong with the college and solutions to these problems.

There are two meetings scheduled for Monday, Feb. 5 to talk about the "problem" areas that will be investigated, and the means by which this may be accomplished. Both meetings will focus on the same topics and are scheduled to, hopefully, accommodate as many people as possible. The first one is at 12:30 p.m. in the Perc, the second is at 4:30 p.m. in room 207 of Marian Hall. Again, ANYONE; students, faculty, staff, administration, ELS' - anyone - is welcome and urged to come to either or both meetings.

If you have ever had a gripe with Marian, you owe it to yourself and to the longevity of OUR school to come.

FEATURE ARTICLE: PHIL KERN RECITAL

The much - awaited senior recital by music major Phil Kern will be this Sunday at 3:00 p.m. in the Marian Hall Auditorium. The following dialogue is from an interview between Carbon writer Ron Dye and Mr. Kern. Phil discusses some of his musical background as well as the upcoming recital, which will feature diverse works by such well-known composers as Ravel, Brahms, Beethoven, Chopin, and Gershwin.

Ron: I suppose the logical place to begin would be with your early musical training. Were you a child prodigy....entertaining all the royal courts of Europe?
Phil: No, never,.never. In fact, I didn't start classical piano until I was 15. Up until then I played organ and percussion, but more in a popular style. I've given up the other instruments since beginning college, in favor of concentrating on the piano.

Ron: Do you hope to ever pick-up on these things again?
P: No, not really. I want to get into composing. Although I've never really done any extended theatre works, that's what I'd like to do. I'm applying for a Masters of Music in composition at Eastman, University of Cincinnati, and IU. Marian doesn't offer any composition classes as such but I've written some things, as well as studying privately with tutors. I've been working with Mike Close of Butler on counterpoint, which is essential in composition.

Ron: Will there be any original compositions in your recital?
P: Yes, there is one suite for the piano called "Indiana" of all things. It contains folk elements as well as 20th century techniques and has a variety of attitudes. With "Indiana" I tried to capture attitudes and feelings about places and things, rather than the places and things themselves.

Ron: You mentioned "Folk elements". Do you listen to much music other than classical?
P: Yes, I do. The classics are beautiful, but there is alot of music written in this century that speaks far clearer to us. I do feel however that a musician can never get enough from the classics, because there is so much rooted there. As I said before I am into American theater music, mostly that and classical concert music. I can enjoy nearly any music, if it is well thought out and well performed. Except maybe 50's music.

THE EDITORS

TO THE MASSES:

I was dismayed upon finding that someone hit my car between 1:30 amd 4:30 pm this past Saturday. The car was parallel parked in front of Clare Hall next to the curb and well out of the way of traffic. I realize that the roads were slippery due to the ice and snow, but I also Know that anyone driving under these conditions should have been using the utmost caution.

What shocked me even more was that the individual responsible did not bother to leave a name or phone number so that I might contact them about the situation. Maybe I'm being naive or idealistic, but anyone who has the privilege of driving should take the responsibility for their actions.

If someone on campus is responsible for the few hundred $S worth of damage done to my car, I wish they'd be man or woman enough to speak up and take the responsibility for their actions. In case anyone does not know, Individuals involved in accidents, and who don't report their involvement, may suffer the consequences of either large fines or a term of imprisonment.

Be responsible drivers!

HAPPENINGS!!

Well this happened a week ago--CARBON welcomed Roberta to fill in the place of Karen. Congrats!! The Sophomore class is making plans for the Event of the year that's gonna fill the air with love. Tickets will be on sale Wed. on, in front of the Auditorium. In the music dept., Phil Kern alias Liberachei of Reminicing '78 is polishing the piano and finishing his preparations for a relishing evening of his senior recital. It is not to be missed. All of us have seen and enjoyed his talents on previous occasions and know what alot of musical fingers can do as they dance on the keys of the Grand Piano! SUMMER JOBS

Summer jobs are available to interested college students through IUPUI's Fifth Annual Camp Placement Day. Students from other colleges and universities are also welcome to attend Camp Placement Day where Camp Directors from the Midwest will be on IUPUI campus to interview interested students for camp jobs.

FROM STUDENT SERVICES:

On Jan. 24 and again on Jan. 31, the Student Services staff met with Pres. Gatto and other administrators of the college who comprise the "Executive Committee!" (Academic Dean, Controller, Director of Development, and Dean of Student Services). The purpose of these meetings was to discuss future needs and priorities of the various departments within student services as well as current student concerns on campus. Topics on the agenda included: student satisfaction with the Food Service, fire safety procedures in Marian Hall, dormitory facilities and maintenance, student life activities, career counseling and placement services, and Christian commitment and values at Marian College.

Students are encouraged to contact members of the Student Services staff if there is interest in learning more about what was discussed at these meetings. The general tone of the meetings were positive and most participants felt that there was an honest and open exchange of views. WAYS TO WIDEN YOUR WORLD

One of the cornerstones of President Carter's foreign policy is that concern be shown for the respect of human rights throughout the world. This will be a topic of the talk on "U.S. Foreign Policy and Human Rights" by James Sinnott, M.M. a Maryknoll missioner in Korea from 1960-1975 when he was arrested and deported for "public acts disturbing the public order." Everyone is welcome to the talk on Thurs., Feb 1. Marian Hall will be 208 at 8:30-9:45; 1:30-2:45; and 6-7:15 p.m.

Several Marian students have indicated an interest in obtaining information on opportunities for both summer and long term work in challenging and fulfilling activities of both a volunteer and career nature. Such information can be obtained on Sunday Feb. 11 at 8:30 p.m. in the Ministry Center when two people involved in these types of work will share informally about their programs. Maureen Riley will talk about her work as a Youth Minister at St. Thomas Aquinas Parish in Indianapolis. Susan Tatman, teacher at St. Gabriel's Parish, Indy, will discuss opportunities for summer work in Appalachia. Both women are enthusiastic about their experiences in the growing area of Lay Ministry.

And if you are looking for a chance to meet new people, to do something "different" and stimulating, why not attend the Ecumenical Student Conference "Why and How Do I Stay a Christian?" being held Fri., Feb. 16, 6:30pm to Sat., Feb. 17, 4:30pm at nearby St. Maur's conference center. This is an opportunity to be with other college students from Indiana who are from different religious backgrounds but share the common Christian tradition. Application forms are available on the Campus Ministry Center bulletin board or from Sr. Sue. Cost is very reasonable—$5.00.

The ELS staff have inquired about the possibility of American students who could offer an hour a week for conversation with foreign student to improve his/her English. This is a good way to be of service to widen one's own horizons. If you are interested write your name and time available on a piece of paper and leave it in the Ministry Center. Special thanks to those who have already volunteered.

KNIGHT’S BASKETBALL

Steve Greenlee

The Marian Knights will be looking to snap a two-game losing streak, and in the process take a step towards the play-offs, when they travel to Mishawaka, Saturday afternoon, for a 2pm tip-off with the Bethel Pilots. The Knights are coming off of consecutive set-backs at Indiana Tech, a week ago yesterday, 78-70, and to Thomas More on Wed. night, 86-72. The two losses have dropped their record to 8 - 10.

In the loss to Indiana Tech, Chad Miller scored 18 points and grabbed 10 rebounds to pace the Knights. Other Knights in double figures were John Brinkley with 12 points and Bryan Mills with 10. The game was tied at half time and the Knights trailed only 62-60 with two minutes left but were unable to pull it off., in the end, as Indiana Tech, continued there hot shooting which sa them shoot 55% for the game. The Knights will get another shot at the warriors when they come down to Indianapolis on Sat. Feb. 17 for the rematch.

In Wed. night’s loss to Thomas More, the Knights were led in scoring by Bryan Mills with 14 pts. Mills was followed by a quartet of players in double figures including Phil Sarvari with 12, John Brinkley with 11, George Chatmen-10, and Brendan McGeehan with 10 pts. It was a game that could be described as a total “Knightmare.” A game where the Knights trailed by 15 pts. at halftime, a game that saw the Knights be outscored by only one field goal, a game that saw them receive three technical fouls, and a game that was officiated as an Intramural game.

(Please note: ALL BOX SCORES ARE NOT AVAILABLE FOR WEEKEND GAMES)

MANASA MINUTES

At the meeting, Tues., Jan 30, the main spring project was discussed. We’ve decided to donate $125 to $150 to the Pleasant Run Children’s Home, a home for emotionally disturbed teenagers. Because they have an immediate need in maintenance they will buy the needed materials and we will do the work necessary on a couple of Saturday’s. We need volunteers, even if it is just a couple of hours. No experience necessary, just willing hands.

In February there will be a workshop at IU for people who are interested in volunteer leadership. If you are interested contact Nancy Smith. We are going to submit articles and pictures to the “Horizons Newletter.” If you have pictures or wish to write an article contact Marty Schmitt. The Mental Health Assoc. has temporarily appointed an new director, Kevin Fasic. He has hope for a Spring conference here.

A recognition banquet for active MANASA members is currently in the planning stages. This should be a relaxing, fun time for all the hard workers!

TO THE PEOPLE WHO HAVN’T SUBSCRIBED TO ‘THE MARIAN ’79’:

I think that you are passing up a great opportunity. I’ve seen it happen before. You’ll say “I don’t want one because my picture won’t be in it.” Or, “My roommate is getting one.” But when your roommate is haggling up his FABULOUS book you begin to cry for help from the yearbook staff. But you’re too late because the subscriptions were taken last winter and you’re left out in the cold.

I don’t see what the hassle is. Why is everyone so slow to realize a good thing? You might say that you know they had trouble the last 3 yrs. and haven’t had a good one in the last 5 yrs. But due to the dedication and hard work of several individuals they have, to the best of their (& mine) ability undone what the yearbook of ’76 & ’77 did. They are working furiously to Make the Marian ’79 a great success.

Maybe some of you don’t realize some of the hard work that it takes to produce a good publication like this one. It takes long hard hours and late nights and a lot of grapes from outsiders who can’t do anything but complain. Those constant complainers are usually (always so) the first to complain and the last to help. Certainly the last to pay a compliment. I feel that the staff of the Marian ’79 deserves at least some kind of recognition. (Excluding myself of course, I don’t do anything but sit at this table and plead with you people.)

Now if you don’t want to buy a yearbook because you think your picture will be in it at least buy one out of the goodness of your heart for the yearbook staff who worked so hard for you. By the way, if Dale Wernke doesn’t buy one from me he is going to get a free trip to the beautiful mountains of Yugoslavia. Well I’ve got to go getting now. I’ve got to go to Northwestern Siberia for the Third Annual Snow Kangaroo Raast. So long...

This petition has been brought to our attention and we feel it is a worthwhile cause. We do not feel that a drastic separation of church and state is feasible for the United States. Please read it, consider its implications, and if you feel supportive sign and mail it to the stated address.

FOR YOUR IMMEDIATE ATTENTION

Madalyn Murray O'Hair, whose efforts successfully eliminated the use of Bible reading and prayer from all public schools, has been granted a federal hearing in Washington, C.C. on the subject of religion and airways by the Federal Communications Commission. This petition (No.R.M. 2493) would ultimately pave the way to eliminate the proclamation of the Gospel via airways of America. She took her petition bearing 27,900 signatures to back her stand.

If her attempt is successful, all Sunday Worship Services currently being broadcast either by radio or television would cease. Many elderly people and shut-ins, as well as those recuperating from hospitalization or illness, depend on radio and television to fulfill their worship needs every week.

Her petition also protests the decision of the astronauts to read the Bible as a Christian message to the world from the spacecraft while orbiting the moon in 1968.

You can help this time . . . we need 1,000,000 (one million) signed letters. This would defeat Mrs. O'Hair and show her there are still many Christians alive and well in our great country.

The petition is number R.M. 2493. Put this number on the envelope you use to mail your letter. A letter awaiting your signature is on the bottom of this form. You may make additional copies as you wish. Only one signature to a letter.

Gentlemen:

Re: Petition No. R.M. 2453. I personally appreciate and wholeheartedly support the many religious programs that are broadcast over radio and television. Many sick and elderly shut-ins depend on radio and television to fulfill their worship needs. I urge you to see to it that such programming continues.
