PATRON DRIVE BEGINS

The Marian yearbook is sponsoring a patron drive from Oct. 1 to Nov. 30. Due to the fact that this year's Marian will be a specially elaborate edition, the Business Managers are in sore need of funds from the sale of patrons.

The drive will be broken down into 4 separate drives. They are:

- Senior drive - Oct. 1 - Oct. 14
- Junior " - Oct. 15 - Oct. 31
- Sophomore " - Nov. 1 - Nov. 14
- Freshman " - Nov. 15 - Nov. 30

Following the 4 class drives will be an overall drive for the first 2 weeks of December. As an added incentive, each class will be awarded 5% of the total receipts from patrons sold by its members.

- Personal Patrons $2.00
- Business Patrons $5.00

For more information and patron slips, contact business managers Tom Tarpy and Harry Polkcs, or your Class Officers.

FIORETTI MANUSCRIPTS WANTED

Short stories, poems and essays are needed for the coming issue of the College Anthology, the FIORETTI. All manuscripts should be typed, double spaced, on 8½ x 11 inch white paper and deposited in the box in Room 310. The deadline is November 30, so GET BUSY!

DON'T FORGET to put your name, parking sticker no., and license plate no. in the box provided in the Pce.

"...Whatever you do to one of these, the least of My brethren, you do unto Me."

UNICEF
United Nations
New York City, New York

"INFANTA" CAST CHOSEN

Congratulations to the five students who have been chosen for the one-act play to be presented on Parent's Day Oct. 22, 1961.

The young princess (Billie Joan Shinn), falls in love with a dwarf (Bob Campbell). The appearance of the suave Lord Sover (Mike Hughes) complicates matters. Pat Palmer will portray the Duchess, and Donna Dentler is cast as the maid.

The half-hour-long production is being directed by Mr. Robert Moran.

SINGERS WANTED

The Men's Glee Club is sorely in need of more male voices - namely, tenors, basses and baritones. Practice is held every Wed. afternoon at 3:30 in the auditorium. Interested men, with the time and voice, please contact Sister Vivian Rose or attend the next practice.

TENNIS CANDIDATES NEEDED

Any students interested in playing varsity tennis next spring, please contact Walt Fields, Joe Kompf or Goza Horvath.

"GRASSHOPPER" CONTEST

Good luck to the students participating in Bill Sherman's "Find the Grasshopper" contest. Bill contends that there is a grasshopper hidden in the large painting hanging just inside the Clare Hall entrance. A prize consisting of Larry Bowman has been announced by Mr. Sherman.

Decision of the judges is final; the winner may not return the award.
THE CARBON NOMINATES:
Harry Oldham, poet laureate of Maran College.
Mario Nastruscio, champion "skitter" on campus. (Very graceful)

THE CARBON APPLAUDS:
The noble "Romans" of the Sophomore Class for their excellent chariot race in the mixed lounge last Saturday night. The magnificence of the spectacle dwarfed "Ben Hur."
The Freshman class for their spirit and attitude during the proceedings of the "Beanie Bounce" Court, especially Tessie Aloyiso and Pam Rasmussen.
Joe Kamps, for his delicious pancakes and fried eggs in the Cafeteria. Earle Krome likes Joe's eggs so well she had 4 last Wed. morning.
Ron Huddleston, he's no push-over.
Father Kahlo's splendid comeback after his recent bout with appendicitis. (We notice the hedges are in need of trimming, let's get on the ball Father!)
Dennis Morcier, for getting up by 11:30 Wed. morning, and then spending the next 3 hours at the "Waterfront."
Students who wear suits and ties to dances on Campus.
Mike Werner, for taking the I.U. Med Center dentistry test.
Ann Earle Holloran, for general principles.

THE CARBON HISSES:
Like Blackwell, for scoring 3 touchdowns last Sunday.
The chuckholes in Maran's front entrance.
The resident girls, who have a ping-pong table in their lounge, while the rest of the school has none.
Bolo students, who wear ramble cords, tennis shoes, and sport shirts to dances on campus.
Students who take books from the reserved shelves out of the library.
Harry Fokkes, who dislocated his shoulder just to attract attention.
Students who don't respect the records and record player in the library listening room.
Bob Turk, for his show-off last second touchdown in last Sunday's intramural football opener.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL
Last Sunday's Results
Raiders, 26 - Giants, 6
Porkers, 36 - Lions, 0
Colts, 13 - Vets, 7

This Sunday's Schedule
1 pm - Porkers v.s. Colts
2 pm - Giants v.s. Vets
3 pm - Lions v.s. Raiders

Ed.'s Note: Who are the "Porkers"?

GO YANKEES! BEAT CINCINNATI!
Editor's Note (any other year, we'd be against the Yanks, but Cincy beat the Dodgers this year and they're in our doghouse) J.K.
The views expressed by one of our editors does not necessarily correspond with those of the other J.D.M.
Wait till next year, the Pirates will be back. A.H.

COMING EVENTS
Friday - "Harvest Moon Hop"
St. Vincent's Auditorium
8 - 11:30 A.M. Adm. 50¢
Saturday - An Hour of Birth & Music
Horace Wilson & Wife Mini
Maran Auditorium
8 PM Adm. $2.00

WANTED:
A ride west for Jerry Zorzo every afternoon.
"Music of the Masters" - a record album by Roger Williams which has disappeared from the Library listing room.

DID YOU HEAR?
There's a new club on campus - the Junior Class Horsewomen's Club. New members invited! For further information contact Sue Sturm.

WOMEN OF MARIAN UNITE!
'So Louie Elia.
Congratulations to all the new HELLOTONES.

"A bird in the hand - Makes blowing the nose difficult." (a friend)