FROM "CHRISTMAS BELLS" ...

"I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old, familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
Of peace on earth, good will to men!

And in despair I bow my head;
"There is no peace on earth," I said;
"For hate is strong
And mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good will to men!

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep:
"God is not dead; nor doth he sleep!
The Wrong shall fail,
The Right prevail,
With peace on earth, good will to men!"

— Longfellow
In Keeping with past traditions of non-conformity, we wish to publish letters from Santa Claus instead of the customary ones to Santa. Below are printed some of the best ones received by the CARBON.

You have been a good girl and a nice Soc. Teacher all year. Santa wants to do something extra for you, so I am bringing you Vince Henn for Christmas. You can use him as an example of prejudice against Trumpet players in your Social Problems class.
