SUMMARY OF BOARD MEETING
The Board met Tuesday, Jan. 9, discussing progress of the Peninsula project and of Field Day. The Board is planning to co-ordinate with the M-Club and WARA and would appreciate and suggestions concerning Field Day.

HOMECOMING III
Tonight the annual Homecoming week-end will start with an informal dance from 8-11 in the Lounge and a bonfire pep-rally at 9:30, when the Queen will be announced.

Saturday, from 11:30-1, a smorgasbord will be served. Then at 3:30, in the Marian gym, the Knights plan on beating Concordia. During the half time ceremonies the Queen and her court will be honored. WE NEED YOUR BLOOD

To climax the weekend, Bernie Weimer and his band will serenade her from 9 to 12 at the Med-Center. At 10:30, last year's Queen, Barbara Franz, will end her reign by crowning this year's Queen.

These are the plans for YOUR Homecoming. This Homecoming could be the biggest and best.

IT DEPENDS ON YOU

PEPINSA PROJECT

The combined efforts of a few conscientious members of the Freshman and Sophomore classes on the Saturday before Christmas resulted in the completion of much of the heavy work needed to get the project underway. With the invaluable help of Father Kahle and maintenance man Mr. Kress, many of the dead trees and large weeds were removed.

A larger turnout is hoped for the next time, as Mike Brown and Bob Campbell, the heads of the project, said that all who worked last time thoroughly enjoyed themselves while doing so. A notice will be posted on the main bulletin board a few days before the work starts again, and, needless to say, everyone is very welcome.
