THINKING AND I

If you have been debating about spending one whole dollar to see "The King and I" on May 20, debate no longer.

The musical promises to be a great success. At least the cast and the stage crew always look like they're hard at work. The children are darling, as all children are, the dancing is beautiful, and the actors are doing a creditable job. If you aren't convinced that "The King and I" will be good solid entertainment, go anyway.

With 85 students in the cast one of your friends is sure to appear.

A Thank-You Note

A "Thank-You" from us to the gentlemen from office 210 for their thoughtful and encouraging note to the Editors.

Dance Tonight!

The mixed lounge will be the site of the Keer Bixy tonight from 8-11:30.

Everyone is invited; 25 cents admission. Many and interesting off-campus groups have also been invited.

Come one and all for some informal fun.

PERSONALITY OF THE WEEK

This Senior is a charming Indianapolis resident. She is a familiar face around campus, and we might add, at many off-campus functions. She is a Sociology major, and merits this column because she truly is a "personality" of the Senior Class. Her devil-may-care attitude has entrenched her in the hearts of friends, and the more studious side of her personality has endeared her to teachers.

Some well known quotes are:

"Well, Charlie!" "I don't know,

Nonsonior," and "Who's driving

tonight?" The Carbon salutes:

Kathleen O'Connor

COMMENTS

Laura informed the CARBON that there are class elections going on this week.

Steve says the freshmen are just filled with enthusiasm for field day.

Ann Marie is glad Laura and Steve happened to inform her of these very important facts, or this space would be empty.

FIELD DAY

Field Day is Wed., May 16. Registration is going on now in front of the Auditorium. Remember, registration is necessary for participation. We are having registration to eliminate delays and confusion and so that the games can be set up and equipped. In all games (except softball) first and second place winners will earn points for their respective class. The Field Day games have been set up on a class competition basis. At 2:30 the Official Tally Keeper will announce the winning class and award the prize.

SCHEDULE

11:30--Passing of gravel in auditorium followed by lunch in the outfield. (Lunch is free — everyone is expected)

12:15--Special feature: awarding of trophies to outstanding Senior, men and women, voted by Senior Class.

1:00—Basketball throw (girls); Football throw (boys) on same order as discus throw.

1:20—3-legged race (mixed); partners race with 3 legs.

1:35—Egg throwing contest (mixed); partners play catch with raw egg at increasing distances.

1:50—Back-to-Back Balloon race (mixed); partners race back-to-back keeping blown-up balloon between them.

2:00—Cross Country relay race (boys).

2:15—Tricycle relay race (girls).

2:30—Softball game for all interested. This event will not be scored.

Every effort is being made to help everyone have a good time; come and add to the fun. Many members of the faculty and administration were skeptical about having Field Day this year, but we are sure, given a good schedule and an organized day, Marian Students will respond. A repetition of last year’s fiasco will end Field Day for good! A $10 fine and expulsion from Campus for the day will be imposed on anyone who throws anyone in the lake! If you have an urge to drown someone, do it another day and somewhere else. If you have any questions, Jan Breuillette, Dick Philips, Iris Luytenruyt, Laura Fitzpatrick, Mary Ellen & Enadetto, Ann Marie & Olleran can answer them. If your question concerns games see Laura; registration, see Ann Marie; food, see Iris; things in general, see Jan. You must register to play-registration closes at 1:30 today.
