Well, the almighty publication hit the steps again, still written in flawless grammar and bold literary style, but what a difference! The apologetic front page made a valiant attempt to undo some of the blatant accusations of the first issue but only succeeded in demonstrating that previous articles had been written without due reflection on the problem. The article to which I am referring is the one on Miss Diver. It was feared by the Gadfly that this article was misinterpreted. This, however, is a fallacy. The article was written so as to be interpreted only one way and that it was. The improvements made by Miss Diver should have been mentioned in the first article. Any attempts to cover up the earlier one-sided view have come too late.

But side two of the Gadfly has proceeded true to form. The intrepid search into the minds of the "inhibited, frustrated, pampered and pushed adolescents who are striving for maturity" is certainly discerning from students who are scarcely qualified psychologists. It is strange how the Gadfly emphasizes the gentility of Marian students and then suggests that one of the gentle men is laying drunk somewhere in a car or that one of the girls is slipping from the back door of the Dorm to indulge herself into a state where she can "shed the cacon of hypocrisy".

And speaking of hypocrisy, how can the Gadfly dictate morality to other students when they themselves have been issued a first warning under the Student Disciplinary Program by the Student Board - here we are attitude shows more immaturity and lack of regard for authority than does the problem of worshippers of Baal who, the Gadfly thinks, are crowding the campus.

I suggest that the editors of the Gadfly clear the weeds from their own back yards before setting themselves up as disciplinary gardeners for the whole school.

NEW HIGH IN STUDENT GOVERNMENT?

I earnestly feel that the Marian College Student Board is deserving of our profoundest congratulations. Through diligent and well-directed efforts they have raised the efficiency of our Student association to a level previously achieved only by the Federal Government. At a "little get-together" Wednesday evening they were in doubt as to what action would be appropriate in dealing with the Gadfly. They displayed one of the most characteristic traits of Americans - they were in doubt and they formed a Committee rivaling those of McCallan and McCarthy. Yes, ladies and gentlemen, Marian now has a College Union Marian Activities Committee, the witch or maybe the "witch" hunters are on the prowl. Your past and present is subject to the secret scrutinizing investigations of this group. Whether your name is Tom, Jane or Archibald you may be exposed as the notorious editor of the Gadfly. Have you ever been involved in any illegal publications at any time in your life even in Kindergarten? Do you have a reputation for scribbling new remarks on the john walls? Do you write critical comments on dirty car dores? If you can answer yes to these questions you had better watch out - Big Brother is watching.

What is purple and stumps out forest fires? Smokey the grape.

Did you hear about the rabbit that was changed into a goon by a mean old witch? Oh well, here today gone tomorrow.
OPEN LETTER

Dear Mr. Divita,

I would like to inform you that the Student Board has decided to eliminate the CFAA. As you are aware, the CFAA has been a staple of our school for many years. We have come to the conclusion that it is no longer needed.

However, I would like to express my concern about the proposed changes. I have been involved with the CFAA for several years and have seen it grow and flourish. I believe it has been a valuable resource for our students.

I understand that you have been a supporter of the CFAA, but I believe it is in the best interests of our school to move forward with these changes. I urge you to consider the impact this will have on our students and the community.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]

Mr. Divita

HISTORICAL FACTS DEPT.

In the fourth century A.D., a Latin philosopher was pondering the problem of how one would be able to tell Adam and Eve from the other people in heaven. He decided that the only solution was that our first parents didn't have a bellybutton. This theory was condemned by the Catholic Church and precipitated one of the greatest naval battles in history.
