2-12-1965

The Carbon (February 12, 1965)

Marian University - Indianapolis

Follow this and additional works at: http://mushare.marian.edu/crbn

Recommended Citation
http://mushare.marian.edu/crbn/727

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Campus Newspaper Collection at MUShare. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Carbon by an authorized administrator of MUShare. For more information, please contact emandity@marian.edu.
Rights?

There has been much talk from time to time about the rights of students and it is time that we all faced facts. It may be difficult to accept but a college student has very few rights. He has the right to choose a place to be educated, and he has the right to be educated. Anything that extends beyond the spheres of these two points enters the realm of privilege. The rights we possess as citizens of the United States do not extend, in their entirety, into the jurisdiction of private institutions. A third choice remains. We are free to make another choice; we are free to leave this institution if the regulations are not in accord with our personal taste.

"Spirit of the Law"

What are students to do if the "spirit" of a school regulation is violated? We believe that a rule should be observed in accordance with the purposes of the law making body. We should not subvert the "spirit" of a given regulation through side-stepping its theme and negating its implications.

Marian College students have been given the opportunity to demonstrate their maturity and exercise a degree of personal responsibility by the elimination of a "cut" system in upper division courses. Students should not abuse this privilege through unnecessary absences. It is equally important that instructors resist the temptation to substitute an "F" for the "FA." An instructor's personal "cut" system would completely destroy the meaningfulness of the new regulation.

An Observer

Sweethearts' Ball and Chain

The doors are open and everything is ready for you. At the stroke of nine, the music will ring forth, and the din will begin. Ron Weiner's "Continentals" are the responsible musicians.

During the following festivities, a Queen of Sweethearts will be crowned. Please be sure to get your ticket before you leave school today. Price is now $2.50 but goes up to $3.50 at the door. The Antlers Hotel is located at 750 N. Meridian St., across the street from the downtown library. Amap is in front of the auditorium for your edification.

Sports Info in Room 130

You've heard the weekly jibes, or as we look at it—constructive criticism, of the 'lounge lovers'. Finally things have come to a head. A student has taken the lead in removing the love scenes from the public eye. This is what the CARBON calls real school spirit. This week a senior, who we shall call Sid, (see last week's CARBON) made the move that the combined efforts of the CARBON, Administration, and Student Board could not achieve. If this staunch leader is followed the passion problem in the lounge will be solved. The CARBON salutes you, Sid, for your show of initiative.

The only problem now is how to stop macking in Room 130.

February 12, 1965

Procrastination...
This week the CARBON had decided to rise above the petty bourgeois and invade the lofty realm of the student deans. After careful deliberation we have selected that intrepid investigator Sherlock Safellas, as our honored celebrity. Secure in the knowledge that he is a man and we are men and we know what we have to do this dauntless detective fearlessly carries out the duties of his office. Foremost, the slough has certainly been around prodding deep into the heart of many memorable cases; the fearful Blatzkreig, the famous harvest moon incident, the duke-out at St. Joe, the suppression of subversive literature, the Mixed Lounge mashers, and the notorious dormitory revolt of 1964-1965. Our subject is currently authoring a book entitled: "A House Is Not a Home If The Premises Are Generally Poor."

The logical extension of the dormitory facilities of the College and the English Department is sponsoring a series of movies and discussions beginning in February. It is a very unique publication: "Death of a Salesman" is first on February 19. Admission is 50 cents.

The CARBON wants to see:
- skirts below the knee
- black hose without brown loafers
- a sidewalk to south campus
- Fred Carr
- Joe Kempf's flag pole

Definitions:
- conservative—aman who is too cowardly to fight and too fat to run
- highbrow—a person who can discuss sex and make you think you meant it all in a purely intellectual way
- peace-in international affairs, a period of cheating between two periods of fighting.
Latin America Week

The week of February 10th to the 17th will be devoted to one of the most pressing needs of the Catholic Church. It concerns the very poor condition of the Church in Latin America and its dire need for priests, sisters, apostolic laymen and financial resources. The misery of this situation is further aggravated by the abject poverty of the average Catholic. The future of the Church in Latin America depends to a great extent on the possibilities for improving the desperate economic situation.

"Latin America Week" at Marian College will be devoted to the education of our students on the vast scope and seriousness of the conditions in this area. The week will commence with Votive Mass, Wednesday, February 10th at 11:30 AM. On Thursday Sister Mary Carol, Sister Mary Edgar and Nancy Fernandez will lead a discussion on the economic, social, political and religious needs and prospects of Latin America. It will begin at 10:30 in Room 251. The following day, Friday, there will be a collection taken up in the cafeteria during the lunch period. Please watch for the "Have a Heart for Latin America" Collection. We should try to do all we can to alleviate these pressing needs, the situation is desperate. It is not something we can think about tomorrow.

There will be a special shelf set aside in the library on the history and problems of these countries.

LAST LEPRECHAUN

The Marian College Drama Department Children's Theater will present "The Last of the Leprechauns" this weekend. This three-act work is directed by Sister Mary Jane and choreographed by Pat Paterak. This delightful bit of fancy will be staged Friday, 8:00; Sat. and Sun., 2:00 P.M. in the Auditorium. Tickets are $1.50 for adults and $.50 for children, available in the Information Office or at the door.

In order to settle all misconceptions and rumors concerning Homecoming activities, the following is the official word on the situation. "There will be no further attempts to reschedule Homecoming in this year's crowded calender. All dance ticket money will be refunded by the individual sellers. The postponed basketball game with Oakland City will be played here Feb., March 2."

B-Ball

That Nemisis grades nailed several of the players at semester leaving the team shorthanded. Some promising men to fill the gap are Tom Egold, returned from last year; Bill Kocher, an interested Freshman, and Pete Hilliard, who transferred to Marian this semester. The squad will see action against the Huntington Foresters this Saturday evening.

Sweethearts Ball

This year's Sweetheart's Ball will be the gala affair before Lent. For a miserably $2.50 you can dance around the magnificent Gold Room of the Antlers Hotel to the beautiful music of Ron Weiners' "Continental's". Dress is optional, Formal or Semi-Formal. The Ball will last from 9 to 12 on Friday, Feb. 12 at the Antlers Hotel, 750 N. Meridian St.

Voting for Queen of the Ball will be held Wednesday, in front of the auditorium.

OH SHUCKIES,
A SILLY B+