Tune-up Time

Now that spring has quit rushing around like a lion--an Arctic lion at that--and settled down with a promising bit of warmer weather in store for us, we think that perhaps we had best make like so many wise motorists. Every good car owner at this time of year will start to give his Lizzie the 10,000 mile check-up or the spring tune-up. And that is just what we could do too as regards our spiritual lives. After all, Easter is just a couple of hops around that white lily and over that gaily colored egg. A good tune-up is then in order. We have been informed that the best place at Marian for such work is at one "Marian College Counseling Service." Their offices are conveniently located about Marian and Clare Halls, and their time will be sure to fit your schedule. We recommend them to you so that everyone will have a chance to get into condition for the rough holiday traffic. Believe you us, they are really capable people, and, though they might not know all the answers, they will surely try to do their best to help you. So why not drop in and see any member of this friendly and dependable service agency. Remember their motto: We strive to make all your problems small ones.

CURTAIN CALL

The Festival of Plays rang to an end as the curtain fell last Sunday morning. Although the wintry weather prevented two colleges from being here, it was indeed a grand success and well attended. The Carbon wishes to extend gracious thanks to Sister Mary Jane and her cast, on stage and back stage, for representing Marian well. Also to all those who attended. Many thanks to the three judges who spent much time and effort for so long. Below are the results.

Best Production--Aria Da Capo, St. Mary of-the-Woods
Best Actor--Pat Maloney, Evansville
Theatre Guild
Honorable Mention--Mike Kramer, Marian College
Best Actress--Alice McPherson, Indpls.

Coffee Corner

Hear ye, hear ye, all ye early morning coffee drinkers. Let it be known to one and all that Easter vacation is almost upon us. Just five more days of school. And with the coming of Easter our thoughts turn to more serious things than exams and school. Namely, parties and dates. Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week--the week set aside by the Church to commemorate the last week in the life of Our Lord. This coming Sunday is Palm Sunday, the last Sunday in Lent. That's right, you can start smoking and eating in another week. But to more serious things. Before you begin your partying et. al., let's remember the reason for some of this vacation. The idea is to give you some free time to attend the Holy Week services in your parish church. Just keep this in mind when the 4:30 bell rings on Wednesday and enjoy your vacation. Happy Easter to you all, and a blessed one. We'll see you after the day before.

GIVE A HAND

This Friday is the feast of the Seven Dolours of the Blessed Mother. In honor of this feast the Rosary will be recited every fifteen minutes from 8:30 a.m. on. The intention will be for all those persecuted the world over as well as for their persecutors. How about giving a helping hand. That hand can reach a long way when a Rosary is in it.

Happy Easter, People!

SOPHOMORE DANCE

The Halls of Marian are buzzing once again with the enthusiastic questions--"Are you going?"..."Who is playing?"..."What are you wearing?" And what is it all about?

The Sophomore Dance, of course. The date is April 22, the time, 9-12, the band, Vic Knight's Sextet. The theme is "Twilight Rhapsody." Dress in your best semi-formal attire and come along.

COMING EVENTS

The next few months hold many activities for Marian students. It would be a good idea to save this partial list for further reference.

SORRY SENIORS

Senior Comps are scheduled for this coming Friday and Monday, April 1 and 4. Good luck, girls, we're pulling for you.

Irene McCarthy and Joanne Kreiger will give a recital on April 24 at 8:15 p.m.

Mary Evelyn Maloney and Mary Elizabeth Kodama will hold an art exhibit May 22 through June 5.

ORCHIDS*

To the Student Board for their contribution of tables and chairs to the Percolator.

To the students who have given up their free time to act as hosts and hostesses to the visiting senior classes of Indiana's High Schools.

To those who helped behind the scenes in the Play Festival.

To the Sophomore Rembrandts and Friends who have helped to give the Mixed Lounge a new face.

MONEY, MONEY, MONEY

The CSMC is giving away not just one bunny rabbit, but two bunny rabbits. Not real live ones, but these are the kind you play with and keep on your bed. Chances are a penny a piece. Proceeds will go to Quyt's fund. The goal is $75. At last count the CSMC had collected $37. Let's help push that collection way over the top.

SCIENCE CLUB

Anyone interested in going to Tri-State over the weekend of April 29 and 30 is requested to see Joanne Hazlewood.

RESIDENTS!

Give to the TV fund. Save your pennies. The set will soon be yours. You can do it.

THIRD ORDER

The Third Order is selling chances on a beautiful crystal rocery. The chances are 10¢ or 3/25¢. Contact Mary Elizabeth Koike, Mary Agnes Kodama, Margaret Windsor, or Wilfred Wagner. It will be given away next Tues.

PLAY BALL!

The Marian Knights play their first baseball game on Tuesday against Ind. Central. Time is 3:00 at Diamond #1, Riverside.

NFCCS

The Annual NF Congress will be held at Marian on the weekend of April 22. Schools from the Fort Wayne Region will send their delegates here to discuss the Lay Apostolate.
