3-22-1956

The Carbon (March 22, 1956)

Marian University - Indianapolis

Follow this and additional works at: http://mushare.marian.edu/crbn

Recommended Citation

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Campus Newspaper Collection at MUShare. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Carbon by an authorized administrator of MUShare. For more information, please contact emandity@marian.edu.
TO THE STUDENTS

The revision of the Constitution of the Student Association has been completed and will be submitted to the Student Body on March 26. Each student will then have one month to study the revision before voting for or against it in April.

A two-thirds vote of the members of the Association present at the voting is required for adoption. Each revised section will be voted upon separately.

A copy of the revised constitution will be posted on the bulletin board with a copy of the present constitution. Any questions or comments regarding the changes may be placed in the question box which will be set up, or brought up at one of the two discussion group meetings, the dates of which will be announced later.

Because of the importance of the student association constitution and because of the time spent in its preparation you are urged to consider the entire revision carefully, ask any and all questions before the actual voting, and to vote intelligently on April 26.

Jeanne Parker
Constitution Committee
Chairman

PLAY FESTIVAL

The One-Act Play Festival, sponsored by Marian College and held here last Saturday and Sunday, was a great success. Those students who attended all remarked on how very good it was. The CARBON wishes to congratulate Sister Mary Jane for her hard work in making this a success; congratulations also to the players from Marian and the other participating colleges. Best production and best actor awards went to St. Mary-of-the-Lake College's presentation of "Boy with a Cart." The Whiting Theater Guild won best actress award for the actress playing the title role in "Chiara."

FAMILIAR SCENE ON CAMPUS
by Gail Ebach

Cramming for Mid-Terms

"If all the college students who sleep in class were laid end to end, they would probably be more comfortable!" Watch next week for more imperishable utterings!

CU.R.A.

The College and University Relief Administration is going to sponsor a card party on Wednesday, April 11. There will be door prizes and food! Tickets may be obtained from any Senior for only 50¢ apiece. All profits will go to help the needy on our campus. Come and enjoy the fun!
Next Thursday, the baseball team will motivate up to Renaisser to play St. Joe's. (That's logical; isn't it? The team wouldn't be going unless they were intending to play!)

On April 10th they truck over to the fair city of Terre Haute to play Rose Poly. GOOD LUCK, MEN!

MISSING

If you have been noticing the absence of the Student Board minutes in the last several issues of the CARBON, don't feel bad! They haven't been turned into us. If you want to read them, you'll have to track down the Secretary.

SNACK PIT

(Purely fictional this time!)

Student: "Sir, I don't think I deserve an absolute zero!"

English Prof: "Neither do I, but that's the lowest mark I can possibly give!"

Overheard by the Phantom: An undertaker is the only man in the world who never worries about back seat drivers.

A.S.C.

The weekly meeting of the A.S.C. Student Affiliates will be held on Tuesday at eleven o'clock in the third-floor Chemistry Department. Be prompt!

DIG THIS

A fraternity pledge had been sent to a cemetery on the edge of town to copy instructions from several marble tombstones. As he was leaving the graveyard, he fell into a newly-dug grave and in doing so, he broke his ankle.

"This is indeed a bad situation," he said. Then he began to yell for aid.

Two bosters happened to be strolling through the area just then, and they heard his cries. Although their real purpose in visiting the cemetery was to visit some friends who were really gone, they decided to investigate the cries for help.

When they reached the large hole, one cat said to the other, "This is the place, Jack. Dig that crazy singing!"

Together they stood on the pile of soil recently removed and looked down at the pledge. He saw their bloodshot eyes, and shouted up, "Help me out, you guys. It's real cold down in this grave!"

To this one of the bosters answered, "Well, sure it's cold, man. You've kicked off all your dirt!"

ORCHIDS?? to the fellows who keep the waste baskets so clean in the men's lounge by thoughtfully neglecting to use them. We've got the nastiest waste baskets around!