INTERNATIONAL ISSUE

So you have journalistic ability, huh? Well, then volunteer for this paper as it is under temporary management. Or if this seems like too great a task, be sure to turn in all news items at the Information Room by Tuesday at 12:30. There will be a box provided to receive the names of volunteers and all news items. Without news, this paper will not be of service to you.

Que sera... sera...

CONDOLENCES TO THE ILL AND INJURED;
Margaret Windsor, Larry Ittenbach, Barbara Hertel, Ronnie Say and especially Joe Tierney for his courageous efforts above and beyond the call of duty.

$64,000 Question:
How long are we going to refer to the mixed lounge in that repugnant, insufferable, loathsome, aversive, repulsive, abominable, distasteful, unsavory and undesirable term, the Mixed Lounge? Doesn't anyone have an idea for a new and different name??

This week's assembly spotlights the political world. Sen. Homer E. Campbell will give the Republican story with John Carvey presenting the Democratic views. Don't miss this one, especially if you are of the privileged class (over 21) that will vote this year. Time: Thursday at 9:30. (No, you won't lose that class, it will be moved up to 10:30. Sorry!)

Campus Club Week, Oct. 8-12 can help you solve the problem of what to do with your spare time. (Is there anyone who has some?) There is a variety of good clubs with room for more if there is sufficient interest.

Say, you patriotic people, come on and help the seniors celebrate the discovery of this great part of the world by coming to the "Columbus Capers" this Friday night. Ron Dufour will spin the records from 8:30 till 12:30 in the Mixed (Ugh!) Lounge for 1.00 per couple.

... From the Student Board Parents' Day Committee chosen.
(Reminder - that's on Sunday, Oct. 21.)
Arrangements were made for picking up a donated TV set for student use.
Parking Committee recommended that Seniors & Juniors use lots behind Marian Hall, that all cars must be registered, and a 15 mph on campus speed limit be enforced. $2.00 will be the fine imposed for all violations.
The Fioretti, campus magazine, was allotted a .25 increase per student for publication expense.
A decision on a dance band sponsoring a dance on campus brought out the policy of allowing only recognized campus groups to sponsor money-making projects.

Charlie Pooner says:
"A bachelor is a conceited man who won't marry because he can't find a girl who will love him as much as he does."

LET YOU SELF GO...

The BEAUX ARTS BALL, sponsored by the Players, promises something new for the campus crowd. Of major interest is the masquerade ball, a relatively new idea for a Marian dance. The Headliners will give with the music if you will give with the price of a ticket $1.50 per couple, 50.75 stag. Dancing from nine p.m. 'til midnight. (Here's your excuse for being a sheep in wolf's clothing.)

A GENTLE REMINDER

(the Friendly Persuasion)

Find the time to make a retreat (by your lonesome) before you get into a rut! You'll be surprised how much it can help.
