SPEAK UP NOW

You, the Student Body, have an excellent opportunity to show an interest in your Student government, but it will not last forever. The nominations for Board Secretary will be made at a closed meeting of the Student Board this coming Thursday. These present officers want your suggestions for capable leaders now. Remember, don't gripe next year if you aren't interested enough to speak up now.

Latin-German Club

A 7:30 meeting has been scheduled in the Assembly Rm by the Latin-Germans. (It's a mass revolution against the Irish.) They have arranged for some appropriate Lenten entertainment, while also presenting a background for our Lenten devotions. Rome, the Eternal City and The Christian Martyrs are the films to be shown.

Third Order of St. Francis

Immediately after evening services the Third Order has scheduled a meeting in the Assembly Rm. Father Humilis, Spiritual Director, will speak. A panel on Reverence will complete the schedule. Can't something be done to resolve this conflict in meeting sites?

THURSDAY REQUIRED ASSEMBLY

"The Kedriff Quartet"

The advance notices lead us to believe that this should be a "good assembly".
This Sunday at , the Greatest Show on Earth will take place in the gym. The Victorious Vets Basketball team will clash with the Faculty Flabs. The game will be played for the benefit of the Missions. Admission is 10¢. Following is the Flabs line-up:

Rev. C. Patrick (Swish-Swish) Smith
Rev. Albert (The Big "O") Ajamie
Rev Charles (Fantastic) Frazee
Rev. Robert (Balcony) Borchetmeyer
Mr. Dante (The Dunker) Ventresca
Mr. Walt (Wheat) Fields
Mr. Henry (Hurryin' Hank) Engel
Mr. James (Tip-in) Treacy
Mr. William (Give 'em the Business) Thompson O.L.D.

EXTRA ADDED ATTRACTIONS:
At this writing, negotiations are being made with Miss Haugh and Miss Malatesta to act as cheerleaders. Improper, eh?

Father Courtney will perform at halftime on the trampoline.
Msgr. Galvin will be on; Can Basketball be played on Sunday?

Fathers Dooley and Schmidlin will play the Star Spangled Banner, a duct, on the zither and ocarina, respectively.

Dr. Lord will be on hand...in case.

Mr. Sahm will give an analysis: Why the Faculty Lost.

Another member of the faculty will unveil the Sportsmanship slogan. We have not been told what the slogan is, but have been informed that directly beneath it will be another sign reading: "Have some fun...Read Chesterton!"

COMMENTS:
It's too bad, it seems to us, that the Faculty has resorted to corruption in recruiting Father Borchetmeyer, who just happened to grow six feet four inches. Those attending the game will refrain from throwing things at the players, with the exception of wads of old test papers with grades of "D" or worse. Anyone throwing A's, B's, or C's will be considered as kicking a gift horse in the mouth......

DON'T MISS IT

SOPHOMORES:
The Sophomore class officials are having trouble getting satisfactory attendance at their class meetings. This coming Monday at noon, there will be such a meeting in the Physics Lecture Room. Sophomores are urged to sit in...........

Progress has been slow (and I'm amazed and annoyed) in the CARBON contest....
To stimulate interest, the prizes are announced as follows: For the male...a date with my collegue. For the girlie....an evening with Slim....Since these have been announced, I might add that if, later on today when you submit your entry, the box is jammed full, be patient. You have all of next week...Good Luck...

Captain Simko has asked me to announce that golf enthusiasts are to report to Coach Fields.....

ALMOST FORGOT. MSGR. REINE WILL BE ON HAND AT HALFTIME OF THE GAME TO INTRODUCE THE NEW EDITORS OF THE CARBON......
