

COUNCIL APPOINTED

The Faculty Council met Tuesday, May 9; its agenda concerned the appointment of Council officers and general business at hand.

Under administrative reports: Sr. Norma complimented the Education Department on its fine showing in the recent state reaccreditation. She added that the examining team was surprised that Marian offered no graduate program in teacher education.

Sr. Norma informed the Council that the deans of area institutions are working now on inter-institutional cooperation. She said that possibly by next spring semester there would be a plan for students from other institutions to take courses at Marian while Marian students would enjoy free admission to classes at other institutions. Students would pay their tuition to their respective schools.

Dean Brames reported the successful implementation of the Guest Hours policy, crediting its success to the cooperation of the students.

The next item on the agenda was appointment of Council officers, with results as follows: chairman, Sr. Miriam Clare Heskanip; vice-chairman, Mr. John Lowe; secretary Mrs. Midge Crouch; parliamentarian, Sr. Helen Eckrich. The ad hoc committee on committees will be made up of divisional chairmen, the Academic Dean, and the President. This committee deals with appointments to the Standing Committees. The Agenda Committee for next year is composed of Sr. Marilyn Hofer, Mr. John Lowe, and Dr. Michael Eoff. The Election Board was also appointed.

Committee reports were the last item of business. The Education Department reported that it had accepted 55 students.

Admissions reported 262 accepted freshmen so that there will be an estimated class of 225-235.

Academic Affairs had much to report. They suggested no foreign language requirement for students with no language background and with no need for it in their major; they suggested substituting a business or foreign culture course. It was brought up, but voted down, that Philosophy of Man and Philosophy of Nature be made 100 courses but open to juniors and seniors as a 200 course. Concerning the Honors Program, it was decided that five honors seminars and the successful completion of the senior project would fulfill the honors requirement. Also discussed was journalism credit for student editors and a night course in photography.

Mrs. Etsuko Oba, the hostess at Sunday's Japanese tea ceremony, prepares the tea for her guests. Sitting closest to the hostess is the main guest, Keiko Nomura, and next to her the second guest, Mrs. Fusako Penner.

ANNUAL TEA CEREMONY

The History Department sponsored a Japanese tea ceremony at the Tea House last Sunday, May 14. Some of those participating in the ceremony were: senior Keiko Nomura, Marian graduate Linda Smith, Mrs. Fusako Penner '65, and Chieko Ishii who attended here for 2 years, Mrs. Etsuko Oba, and several Marian students.

The ceremony, which developed after hundreds of years is a part of Japanese life. The proper serving of tea is considered part of the graces a Japanese woman should have and it is an art she usually learns when she is a freshman or sophomore in high school.

The exquisite ceremony with its precise movements teaches several lessons including the appreciation of nature, etiquette, patience, humility, and equality.

IN SYMPATHY

Mrs. Dugan, mother of Ellen and Robert Dugan, students here at Marian, died suddenly Sunday, May 14. There will be a mass said for her Thursday at 4:30 p.m.

Mr. Baron died May 12. He was the grandfather of Terriann Schiering.

EXPRESS GRATIFICATION

The National Association of Financial Aid Administrators is spear-heading a program among graduating seniors to express gratitude and support of federal aid to higher education.

Any student who has received a substantial amount of assistance during his time in college is encouraged to write to his Congressmen to express his appreciation of this assistance. Not only will such a letter writing campaign create good public relations among Congressmen and individual members of their constituency, but it will also afford students the opportunity to express appreciation in a concrete fashion to one of the sources which has made it financially possible for them to achieve their goal.

Today there is a tendency for Americans to identify the federal government only in a negative light as an abstract, impersonal bureaucracy in Washington whose apparently endless system of taxation cuts further and further into their incomes. However, students who have received Educational Opportunity Grants, National Defense Student Loans (or any other loans which are guaranteed and subsidized by the federal government while the student is in school) and jobs on the College Work-Study Program have received some of the benefits directly from that tax system.

This year's Care-a-thon cleared $261 for the Kenneth W. Rogers Memorial Fund. This was significantly lower than last year's gain of approximately $700. Mr. Pedtke, faculty advisor for the Upbeat Program commented that the difference is probably due to the fact that last year the various clubs on campus allotted some of their funds to the Care-a-thon. The Rogers Fund still needs the help of these clubs if possible.

UPBEAT PROGRAM

For the fourth consecutive year, Operation Upbeat will institute its summer program for inner city youths. Patterned after the National Upward Bound Program, the six weeks program is from June 11-August 28.

Miss Jeffers heartily endorses this campaign. She has available in the Financial Aid Office a sample letter which may be used as a guide in writing to your Congressmen. She emphasizes that expressions of appreciation are always in order, but the volume of this expression now can create a positive impact on the members of Congress who are this very day considering legislation for federal funding for next year. Knowing that the recipients of that aid are appreciative of it will go a long way in stimulating Congressional support of federal aid programs.

While many details and plans are claiming the attention of seniors right now, Miss Jeffers urges the graduates to take a few minutes of their time, even after commencement if necessary, to let their Congressmen know their appreciation. It may help to insure continued federal

Under the direction of William Pedtke, this year's program will consist of approximately thirty students.

The academic curriculum will include mathematics, English, sciences, current events, all to be dealt with through the open classroom concept with strong instructor supervision. Also, individual student projects will be encouraged.

Other activities will include a variety of competitive sports with other Upward Bound Programs in the state. Bill Smith, athletic director, is in charge of scheduling and supervision. Community social work will consist of student volunteer service at Noble School for retarded children, and possibly Christamore House and Flanner House.

support and increased appropriations for underclassmen and future college students.

GRADUATION

The day the Seniors have been awaiting for so long is fast approaching! Graduation ceremonies will be held Sunday, May 28. Graduation Mass will be celebrated in the College Chapel at 10:30 a.m. Following the Mass, graduates, their families and the faculty will enjoy a brunch in the College Dining Room.

Graduation exercises themselves will begin at 2:30 p.m. on the College campus. Weather permitting, the exercises will be held out-of-doors on the grounds directly behind the Music Annex and immediately in front of the Convent.

The address to the graduates will be given by William D. Ruchelshaus, an Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency. His address will be followed by the Conferring of Degrees.

A reception on the College campus will conclude the festivities.

WE'VE ONLY JUST BEGUN

After the first issue of the Phoenix in September 1971, someone commented that we, the staff, would never make it, that is, we would never succeed in publishing on a regular basis. This skeptic based the remark on the lack of journalistic expertise and the inexperience of the staff. My thought at the time was that these difficulties could be surmounted because of the determination and good will of the staff. Recognizing the fact that the Phoenix does not head any list of professional newspapers I think we can still say that we've come a long way. And because many members of the staff will be returning next year, hopefully, we will be able to go even further.

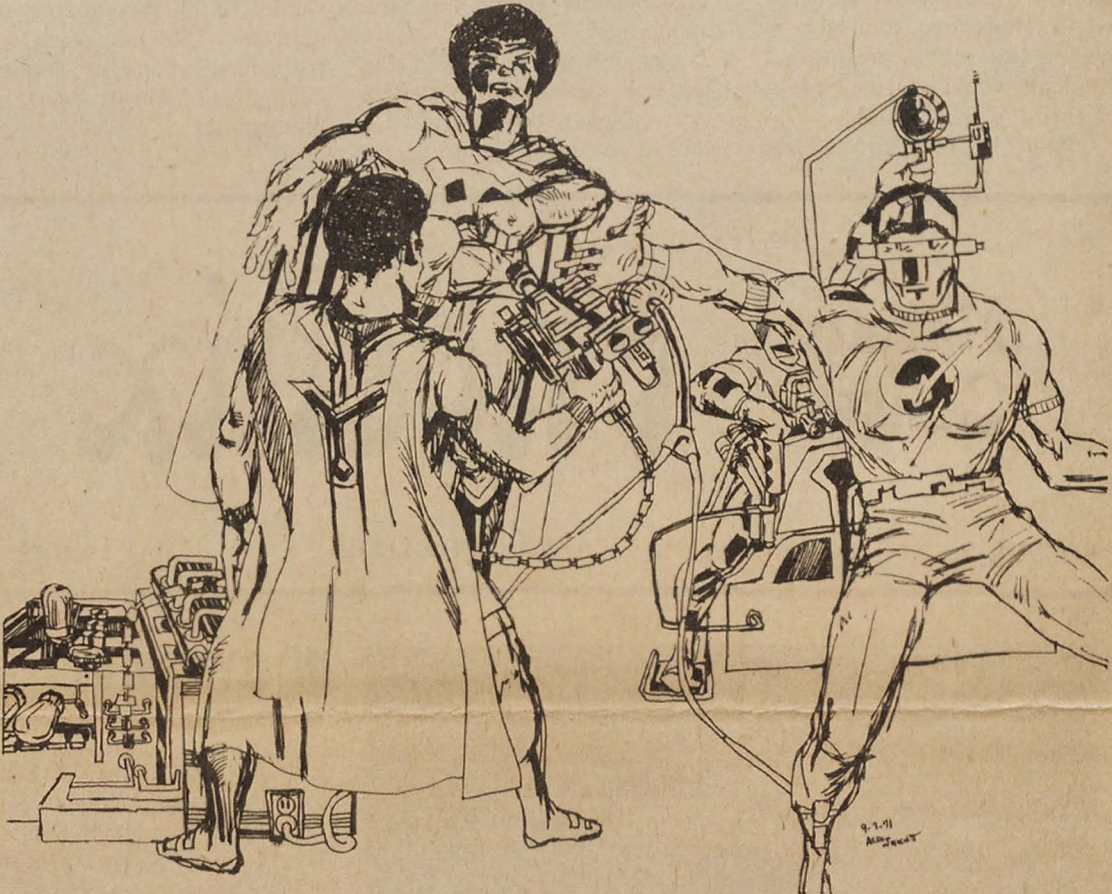

You the readers have been partially responsible for our success. Why? Simply because you do read the Phoenix. This is obvious on Wednesdays when my 1:30 class is to begin and all I see is a "sea of Phoenix" rather than faces eager to learn philosophy! But this is good - no one wants to publish something that isn't read. Thanks for your help.

To those of you who have not been satisfied with the Phoenix this year we wish we had heard from you in the form of a letter to the editor. We're now open to suggestions for improvement as we plan next year's publication. Let us hear from you.

The publishing of a paper is not the job of one person - many minds working together yield the finished product. However, whenever there are many working together, there must also be an organizer or there would be chaos and no unified result. In the case of a newspaper, this organizer is the editor. To Cathy Andre, editor of the 1971-72 Phoenix, thanks for a job well done.

LETTERS TO THE EDITORS

INDIAN CHAIN MISSING

Some weeks ago there was an Indian display in the cases in the library foyer. Among the display items was a beautiful Indian chain and a bell. When the materials were returned to the various owners, the Indian chain and bell were returned to the Art Department, Madonna Hall. Sister Mary Jane, Head of the Department, hung the chain and bell in one of the doorways along the balcony. On Sunday, May 7, the Student Board held a reception in Madonna Hall in connection with Parents' Day. Some groups touring the building rang the bell from time to time. When the reception was over the chain was gone. The bell was left. This is a plea for the return of the CHAIN.

TRADING STAMPS NEEDED FOR NEW SCHOOL BUS

The school bus that daily transports 54 pupils to and from Immaculate Heart of Mary School in Indianapolis is 15 years old, tired, battered, and can't pass another state inspection. Faced with a need to provide transportation for the pupils, on one hand, and faced with a financial squeeze on the other, the IHM Parish Council has embarked on a drive to replace old faithful with a new bus through a drive for trading stamps -- both S&H Green Stamps and Top Value Stamps.

The goal is 3,500 books -- enough to purchase an $8,200 bus.

If any Marian students would like to help a parochial school keep rolling, as well as financially stable, gifts of trading stamps would be one way to do it. Full books would be appreciated but loose stamps would certainly be accepted. (There is a licking subcommittee at the parish to handle loose stamps.)

Please send the books -- or stamps -- to Mrs. Donald L. Beckerich, chairman of the IHM Bus Committee, 5735 Central Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana. List your name and address on the books.

STUDENTS APPOINTED TO STANDING COMMITTEES

At the Student Board Meeting last Sunday night the following appointments were made to the Standing Committees of Faculty Council. Student Services: Pat Arcady, John Purcell, Mary Elmlinger. Academic Affairs Committee: Steve Hammerle. Religious Affairs: Mary Jo Hesper, Greg Rodick, Ingrid Augspols, Kathy Fox. Teacher Education: Fran Bozarth and Mary Binzel. Library: Mary Sears. Program Committee: Dean Morgan and Charles Vlad McNimery. Athletic Committee: Randy Teltoe.

Also formed were three ad hoc committees of the Executive Board of the Student Association concerning these areas: revision of alcoholic beverage policy, student representation on the Board of Trustees, and expanding the use of the current Student Board office in the SAC.

At the beginning of next year, we will be inviting members of the college community at large to participate on these committees.

Marian Knight
Marian Maid

In the past, it has been the tradition of the senior class to honor a man and woman from their ranks whom they feel have been outstanding in the areas of character and service. This year is no different. Last Wednesday, to start off Field Day, the Marian Maid and Marian Knight awards were awarded to Carol Sue Smith and Herb Boehm, respectively.

Herb Boehm, a math major with a minor in business, has been named the 1972 Marian Knight. Herb attended the Latin School in Evansville where he played varsity basketball and was active in a lot of other activities including being prefect of liturgy his senior year. It was in high school where his interest in music began as some of his duties as prefect involved organizing songs for the choir and masses. This interest still holds true for the present. Herb has been a member of the chorale for four years, one of Cantor's Chanters since the group's initiation, aside from playing the double tenor drum in Drum & Bugle Corps for 2 years.

With graduation right around the corner, Herb has a job lined up with the Coca-Cola Co. in public relations and advertising, along with several other jobs pending.

Since Herb's enrollment at Marian as a freshman in the fall of 1968, he has seen a lot of changes go through. Herb remembers the time when male freshmen had midnight hours on weekdays with designated study hours. Only senior men had no hours then as compared to the present situation where all Marian men do not have hours. Herb was also here to witness the abolition of the dress code and remarked that, just like the reaction to the guest hours policy, the students generally took the change in stride (with a few exceptions, of course.)

A native of Ireland, Indiana, Herb is the son of Mr. and Mrs.

HERB BOEHM AND CAROL SUE SMITH

Sylvester Boehm and is one of a family of 3 boys and 2 girls. He will be leaving Marian with the honor of being recognized in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities for his academic accomplishments (Dean's List) and for his service to his class and to the college community.

Like Herb, Carol Sue Smith, this year's Marian Maid, has also been named to the Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Nature-bound Carol Sue loves bicycle riding, ice fishing, "giggin' frogs," snipe hunting, going barefoot, perfume fights, and chocolate pies. She also goes for organized sports having actively participated in women's intramurals and avidly supporting the Gods of Hellfire for the past four years. She has also been known for quarterbacking her powderpuff football team in previous years and has most recently been distinguished for chasing pigs at Field Day.

If the rules seemed tight for men a year ago, Carol Sue remembers even stricter times. She mentioned the study hours they had to keep where they couldn't leave their rooms, much less even talk on the telephone. Those were also the days when Saturday mornings were reserved for room checks and Sundays were dress-up days in the cafeteria. There was even a fine for going barefoot. Since the lounge was open only to women, the Perc was "a big thing."

For a girl who, according to her friends "runs like a duck," Carol Sue had a lot to do with all the changes in the past 4 years being active in committee work and serving as treasurer of her sophomore class.

Hailing from Stanley, Kentucky and coming from a "long-range family of farmers," Carol Sue has one brother and four sisters - all married.

Carol Sue will be graduating with an elementary education major and a minor in sociology. Currently job-hunting, she would like to work in Covington, Cincinnati, or stay in Indianapolis. At present, she works at the Stable Influence where, true to form, her waitress uniform is a pair of overalls.

OFFICERS ELECTED

At their last meeting, the Marian College Home Economics Association elected officers for the 1972-73 school year. The newly elected officers are: Cathy Curran, chairman; Clare Stickan, vice-chairman; Carol Haskins, secretary; and Cheryl Collier, treasurer. Yesterday, May 16, at 12:15, the new officers were initiated into the new positions.

DAWNING WAS THE DAY

Emerging as the victor of the annual Field Day Activities was the Sophomore class. They were awarded a trophy at the close of the event, sponsored by Booster Club, which was held May 10, 1972.

The day's scheduled events began with a picnic. Following this, awards were presented to the intramural sports champions. Plaques were presented to this year's Marian Maid and Knight, Carol Sue Smith and Herb Boehm.

A special award was presented to Roger Branigan in appreciation for an outstanding job as Booster President. Barb Moll accepted the plaque in Roger's name as he was unable to attend the activities because of a baseball game.

Then the first of many games planned began as Mark Gayer and Joe Wade tallied the first points for the Sophomores by winning the egg toss. Next, the powderpuff football games were started with several injuries incurred by the energetic and athletic girls. But despite all the sudden bodily shocks the Junior class retained the championship.

Then the survival of the fittest prevailed as the Sophomore class used their strength and coordination to overcome the Juniors in the tug of war and their second win was recorded on the boards. Representatives of the faculty showed tremendous coordination as they carried peanuts on a knife. Strutting across the finish line first was Dean Brames and he was presented with the winner's plaque.

Hamming it up at the pig chase were Carol Sue Smith and Barb Childress who picked up the top points with the fast maneuvering of their hands after those poor helpless pigs.

Hunger could be seen in the eyes of Linda Disbrow and Mark Gayer as they gobbled up cream pies and points to record the third win for the Sophomore class.

Thoroughly enjoyed by both participants and observers was the He-She game where Hugo Stimmler and Rich Swarn proved that it isn't hard for guys to dress in a girl's wardrobe, especially when it means a victory for your Senior class.

Having had four years of practice, the Seniors put their minds and bodies together and ended the day's events by finishing first in the relay race.

All in all, the day proved to be an exciting, fulfilled, and bruising one and the underclassmen should be looking forward to next year when Field Day will return with another enjoyable afternoon.

Hugo Stimmler and Lou Leibig give their all to the Senior effort on Field Day to win in the tug-of-war.

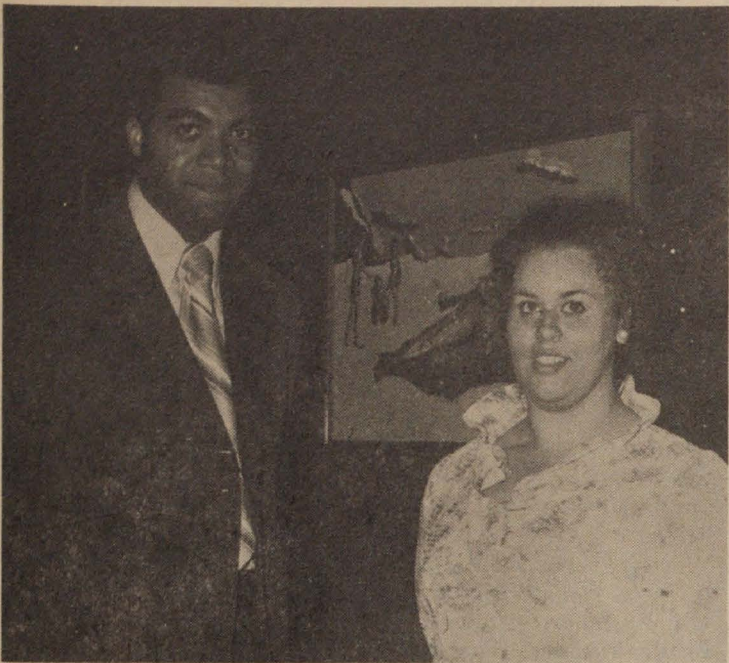

MARIAN "ACTORS" PERFORM

Four members of the Drama Department went 'touring' this week to take some of Marian's talents to the high school students of our 'fair city.' An hour long program, consisting of a brief history of Drama and highlighting a few of the most well-known plays was presented at St. Mary's Academy and Ritter High School. Senior, Gene Bourke; Junior, Pete O'Connell; Sophomore, Joanne Johnson; and Freshman, Janet Kitchen presented selections from The Oresteia, Julius Caesar, Mary, Queen of Scots, Mourning Becomes Electra, Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf, and the entire play, The Sandbox. Reactions from the appreciative high school audiences were spontaneous and laudatory. One student spoke to the 'company' after their performance and explained, 'Oh, do let me shake hands with some real actors. I've never met any before.' Interested in autographs, anyone?

Rich Swarn hurries to score a win for the Seniors in the He-She game on Field Day.

ALSON WRIGHT AND DIANE SISSON

ART EXHIBIT

Four senior art majors are currently exhibiting their works at Madonna Hall. Sister Judith Albers of Lanesville, Indiana, Diane Sisson, Greenfield, Indiana, Kenny Thompson, Steubenville, Ohio, and Alson Wright of Indianapolis have received acclaim for the oil paintings, watercolors, pastels, ceramics, and etchings they have done over the past several years.

The exhibit opened with a reception last Sunday, May 14, and will be going on every day from 2-5 p.m. until May 28.

SISTER JUDITH ALBERS AND KENNY THOMPSON

CONCERT FEATURES LOCAL TALENT

The sophomore class sponsored a free folk concert last Saturday, May 13, to celebrate the last free weekend before finals and to entertain the guests who came down for the time trials at the race track.

Kevin Caraher, the "instigator" of the event (pictured at right) started the concert with several renditions of Bob Dylan songs. He was followed by a new duet - Jon Randall and Sue Brown.

"Garage" from Carmel, Indiana, specialists in "funky folk rock" came next. Songs about pollution and war rendered by John Hannon - a freshman. Junior Ray Mader was the vocalist for the next group, "Granite."

The Joni Mitchell of Marian College, Angie Beaven, finally came on to please the people in the audience - some of whom came just to hear her. Gin Devine came on later and in their last performance together at Marian, the girls finished off with what can now be considered their theme song, "White Bird."

Loud "Boss Tweed" cleared up the auditorium just in time for the spook movie, "Twisted Nerve."

ORIENTATION PLANNED

Next year's freshmen will be greeted by a variety of activities during the traditional Orientation Week. Beginning September fifth, the new freshmen will be greeted by energetic sophomores who will try and acquaint the freshmen with the happenings of Marian College.

The first scheduled activity is a dance to be held outdoors. Other activities being organized are information sessions, a bonfire, shuttle bus service, a hayride, and a computer dance.

Plans are still being made by the class of '75. Sophomore class officers are in need of more ideas and volunteers. If anyone is interested, please contact one of the class officers.

Busy Summer Ahead for Many

This being the last Phoenix issue for the school year, we thought that we ought to devote some space to some of the summer activities of Marian College students and faculty members.

Of course there will be the usual factory openings and restaurant jobs but there are some who plan to have a not-too-dull summer. There are athletes who have already made arrangements to play in leagues, while there are those who are going to be doing a lot of travelling. But before anything else, those who will be taking 'the big step' should be mentioned. Below are some summer weddings scheduled:

Ann Buchanan to Keith Miser, June 17, 1972, at the Allison Mansion, after which they will be heading on to Vermont.

Mary Jane Butcher to Michael Logan, on July 18, 1972, at Massillon, Ohio. Mary Jane and Mike will be residing in Pasadena, Texas, after the wedding.

Cecilia Retzner to David Copperwheat on July 22, 1972, in Morris, Indiana. They will be residing in Naples, Italy.

Pat Murphy to Cindy Kupanoff on August 19, 1972, in Springfield, Ohio. They will be residing in Indianapolis.

Michael Eimer to Pat Greenwell on May 27, 1972 at Bloomington, Indiana.

Larry Armbricht to Brenda McIntosh on June 3, 1972, at Versailles, Indiana. They will also be living in Indianapolis.

Sandy Bischoff to Danny Hill on September, 1972, in Cedar Grove, Indiana.

Mary Feldhaus to Art Burnap on August 12, 1972, in Richmond, Indiana. They will be residing in Nagoya, Japan.

Ruth Miller to Ron Chronister on July 8, 1972, in Decatur, Indiana.

Kathy Meyer to Larry Delpha on June, 1972, in Indianapolis.

Jean Kuebler to George Walker on August 12 at Tiffin, Ohio. They will be residing in Indianapolis.

Joyce Miller to Joe Hartman August 12, 1972, in Indianapolis. Bobbie Donahue to Paul Fitzgerald on August, 1972, in Indianapolis.

Beth Christman to Perry Gates on June 3, 1972, in Indianapolis. The reception will be at the Allison Mansion and the couple will be residing at the Country Squire West.

Susan Knueven to Ricardo Wong on June 18, Marian College Chapel.

Carmen Saniz to John Kirchgassner on July 22, 1972, at Yorkville, Indiana.

Jane Kelly to 'Tinker' Smith on August 12, 1972, at Dayton, Ohio.

Joe Jarboe to Roxanne Huhnke on August, 1972, at LaPorte, Indiana.

Bon Voyage to...

...Bob Schmella who will be leaving for Bogota, Colombia on June 1 to visit Margarita Hernandez.

...Bill Eckman who will be studying at the University of Nice next semester.

...Madonna Bruns and Sue Lonsway who will be returning here next fall after a year's study in France.

...Ed McCord, who will study intensive Chinese I at Seton Hall in South Orange, New Jersey this summer. He has received a tuition remission scholarship from the Chinese Language Institute.

Several familiar faces won't be around next year:

Mary Osowzki will be going to St. Mary-of-the-Woods College where she will be rooming with former Marian coed and frequent Marian visitor, Jane Krider.

Mona Kozlowski and 'Frosty' Roesler are both moving on to Ball State.

Kathy Sevryn is transferring to Bowling Green.

Judy Schultheis will be remaining in Indianapolis, but will be attending Butler University where she will be pursuing a career in special education.

Two Marian women will be moving to other states but they will be coming back to Marian. Kathy Gagen will be moving from South Bend, Ind., to Baltimore, Maryland, while Cathy Caldwell will be moving to Pennsylvania from Indianapolis after a trip to the East Coast.

While a lot of Seniors will spend the summer in search of a job, there are the lucky ones who have already charted out their plans for the fall.

Karla Bartling and Emma Wilhelm will both be teaching at St. Joseph's Elementary School in St. Leon's, Indiana.

Sharlene Blank will be handling the 5th to 8th grades at Holy Trinity here in Indianapolis.

Becky Raibley can't seem to get away from the future Ann Miser and she will be going to the University of Vermont on an assistantship in Psychology.

Also on an assistantship in Psychology, Carmen Saniz is heading for the University of Oklahoma.

Janet Kitchen might be participating in the Miss Indianapolis Pageant on June 4, 1972... Paula Vecchione is going to the Bahamas.

Some of the faculty also have quite a busy summer ahead of them:

Sr. Mary Carol Schroeder and Miss Mary Malatesta will spend the summer in India participating in a study program sponsored by the Indiana Consortium for International Programs.

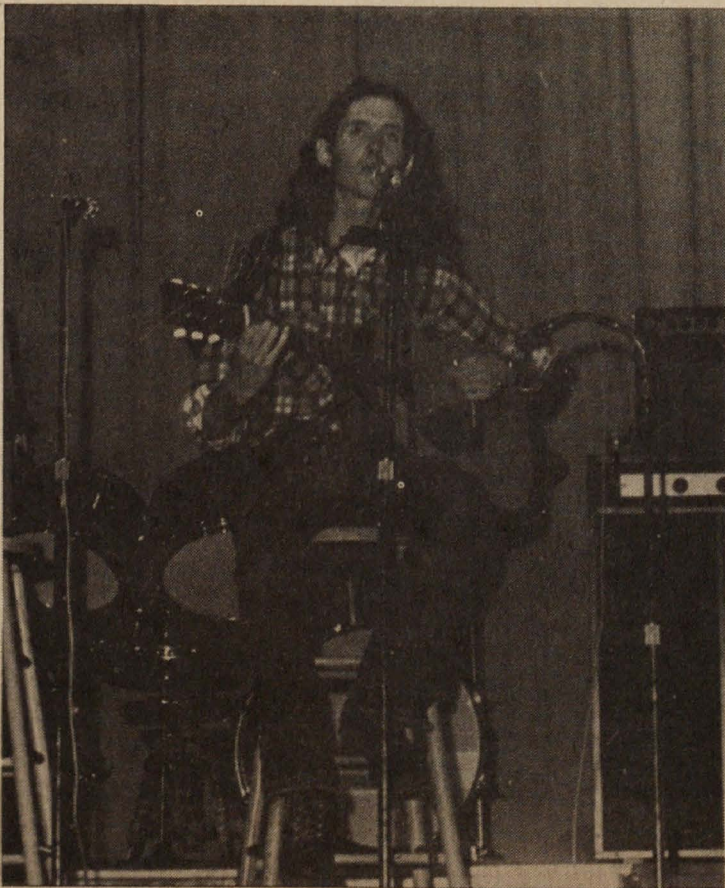

Mr. Divita will be Yugoslavia-bound for a summer of study. His trip is also sponsored by the Indiana Consortium for International Programs.

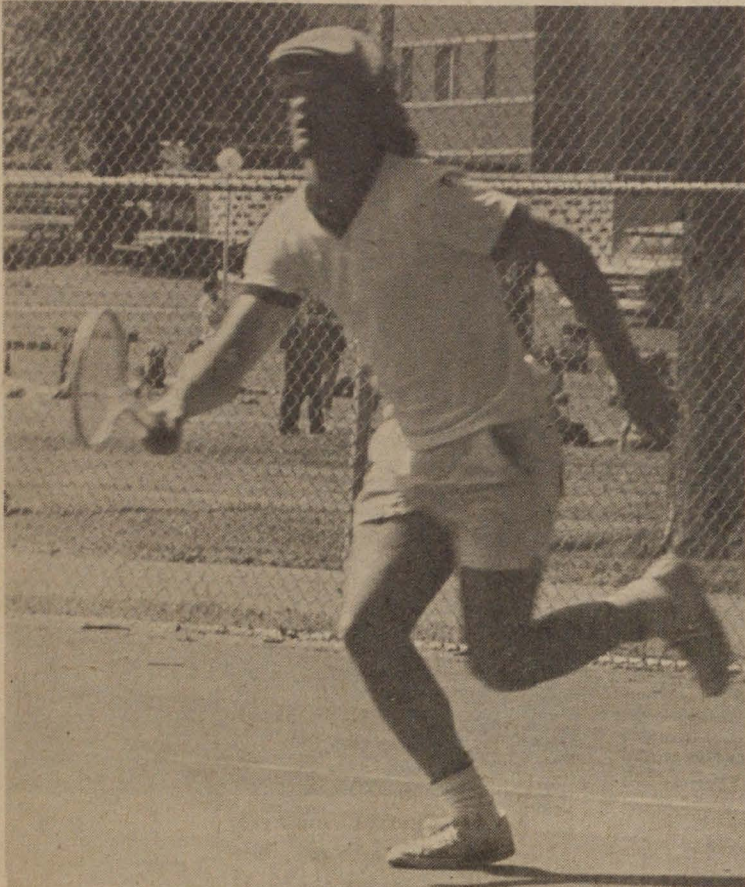

Sr. Frances Bosse has received a grant from the Newspaper Fund for a three-week workshop at Ball State for newspaper advisors.

Don Johnson will spend 14 weeks this summer with 'The Honey and the Rock Company' in Beckley, West Virginia. This professional repertory company chooses its members from auditions all over the country.

Bernice Fraction successfully competed in nationwide competition and as a result will spend ten weeks with the Wolftrap Theatre for Performing Arts in Vienna, Virginia. The Theatre will perform several operas, one of which is an all black opera.

Whether you'll be picking strawberries, jet-setting, going to or being in weddings, selling hamburgers, answering telephones, making plastic bags, driving semis, going to school, carrying your leg around in a cast, looking for a job, or just lazing around, we hope everybody has a great summer and we'll see you in September.

Long Season Ends

The Marian College tennis team, skillfully directed but decidedly overmatched every time they stepped on the court, closed out what was for them a long season by falling to an experienced bunch of racquetmen at Earlham on Thursday.

This defeat, coupled with a setback suffered by the blue and gold against Franklin on Wednesday, left the Knights without a victory for the year.

Coaches Ed Schilling and Joe Kempf, doing a masterful job in what has to be termed a rebuilding year, are eagerly anticipating next year with hope that it will not be a repeat of this one.

Senior Tom Babione captured the only point for the Knights against Franklin, and in doing so closed out his home career on a winning note. The hustling pitman did a fine job for the racquetmen this year and is deserving of the fans admiration for the pride and determination he displayed both on and off the court.

Journeying to Earlham on Thursday, the Knights were again defeated but avoided a shutout when senior Larry Gallas and freshman Bob Gauger teamed up to win a doubles match. Gauger, replacing Gallas's usual partner Tom Sluss, obviously was a big surprise, but Gallas, with his experience and never-say-die attitude, was the difference in this one.

Seniors Babione, Gallas, and

Monday, May 15, saw the championship games of coed volleyball. In the preliminary games Meep Meep and the Road Runners shook up Salt & Pepper while Subject to Change beat Team #1.

In the final game Subject to Change showed that it wasn't as they defeated Meep Meep and the Road Runners. Those 'Subject to Change' were: Jim Apke, Rick Ebinger, Ray Burger, Jean Grace, Nancy Perkins, and Barb Meyer.

21-6 KNIGHTS GAIN BERTH

The amazing Knights reeled off five straight victories this week, extending their streak to six and their record to 21-6.

MARIAN 8

The Knights completed a successful Parents Weekend, treating both parents and students to a victory over city rival Butler.

Marian jumped on the opposing pitcher in the first inning when Jongleaux tripled to right centerfield and "Eye" Eimer then drew a walk. After one out, Tyrrell attempted a sacrifice bunt, but Jongleaux was out attempting to score. Amazing Greg Pawlik ripped a single to center scoring Eimer and sending the crowd into ecstasy.

The Blue and Gold's bats were silenced until the sixth inning when they exploded for five runs. Zapp singled and Geaither pinch ran for him when Zapp hurt his leg. Aust singled to right which was followed by a rare line shot type single from John Jones, scoring Richie. Jongleaux singled, scoring Aust, and then proceeded to steal second. Eimer singled, and Jones and Jongleaux touched the plate, and Ahaus was safe on an error. Tyrrell was safe on fielder's choice, scoring Eimer, but Pawlik ended the inning when he flew out.

In the eighth inning, Eimer walked and Ahaus singled. Then both runners advanced on Tyrrell's ground out, and scored on Pawlik's single, capping the scoring.

Jim Fisher turned in a beautiful pitching performance, holding Butler hitless for 7 2/3 innings, walking six and striking out 13.

MARION 0

Though it rained most of the day and night before the game, the Knights worked together and readied the field for play. It's a good thing they did.

In the second, Tyrrell walked and was sacrificed to second by Jones. He took third on a wild pitch and scored which proved to be the winning run on a passed ball.

In the fourth the Knights got two more. Pawlik walked, and advanced to second when Tyrrell's sacrifice was muffed. Jones singled scoring Pawlik and Tyrrell scored on Norman's sacrifice fly.

In the fifth, speedy Jongleaux singled, stole second, and sprinted across the plate after Eimer singled. Ahaus was safe on a fielder's choice and then he stole second. Pawlik then was safe on a fielder's choice when Ahaus outran the third baseman to the bag. Tyrrell hit a sacrifice fly scoring Ahaus, and Jones followed with a single. Paul Norman walked loading the bases and set the stage for fan favorite Hank Ahaus, my good buddy, to rip his single up the middle, but he ended the inning when he was THROWN OUT BY 30 FEET attempting to go to second.

In the sixth Jongleaux was safe on an error and Mike Eimer walked. Ahaus ripped a single scoring Jongleaux, and both Ahaus and Eimer tallied on Pawlik's double. Tyrrell singled and this ended the Knight's scoring.

Alex Karason tossed a three hitter over six innings, only walking three. Roger Branigan mopped up with his first appearance of the year. He allowed a hit and a walk, while treating the crowd to a variety of pitches, obviously enjoyed by the large amount of "oohs" and "aahs."

The "gold hose" scored all of their runs in the first inning, when Ken Aust doubled and scored on Pawlik's single. Tyrrell then slammed a triple to right center and scored on Gary Armbricht's single.

Mike Brunette, pitching in his first game in almost a month, extended his unblemished record to 6-0. He went five innings allowing 1 unearned run, walked one, and gave up three hits. Larry Armbricht pitched the final two innings, giving up one run, walked one and allowed two hits. He gained a save when he struck out the side in the seventh inning.

FRANKLIN 0

For the second straight year, Marian gained its 20th victory in the first game of the doubleheader with Franklin.

Opening the game, Jongleaux walked, then stole second, and scored on Ahaus's single. Pawlik singled up the middle sending Ahaus to third and they both scored on Pat Zapp's line shot to center. Mike Eimer opened the 3rd with a single and advanced when Ted Ahaus was safe on an error. The Knights hottest stick "Lik" then cracked a three run homer.

Yes, there are a lot of
to quit smoking.

Find yours.

() That "Smoke Pretty" ad makes me furious. Whoever made that up knows where the money is—fewer women than men are quitting. But they won't get rich over my dead body.

() I want to be a teacher. How can I discourage kids from smoking when I smoke?

() I know my father's been trying to quit. How can he with me still puffing away?

() I want to wake up feeling fresh and clean again. I've had it with nicotine hang-over in the mornings.

() The thing that appeals to me most is: If you quit for good, in most cases it can be as if you never smoked.

() Somewhere in the back of my head I've been nursing the illusion that smoking is really only dangerous for men. I've just seen the latest statistics. The death rate for women who smoke is more than 20% higher than for women who don't. We've come a long way baby, but I'm not going any further.

Now all you need is help and encouragement. Send a postcard today to: Women and Smoking, Rockville, Md. 20852. And we'll send some free booklets to help and encourage you.

Monnot, and Maxine Ray; Cheerleaders: Patricia Baumer, Janet Kitchen, Catherine Lough, Jane O'Bryan, and Susan Schnepf.

Winner of the Alumni Scholastic Award, given by the Indianapolis Chapter of the Alumni Association to the graduating, four-year inter-collegiate athlete with the highest grade-point average, was Mike Brunette, of Indianapolis.

GOLFERS GO...GO...GO!

Marian's long driving linksmen, under the watchful eye of coach Roy Pille, are preparing for the rapidly approaching N.A.I.A. tourney meet next Friday at the other Marion's golf course.

Seemingly having a hard time getting untracked, the Knights lost to Franklin last week and having only one regular season outing remaining, this being at Purdue-Calumet on Tuesday.

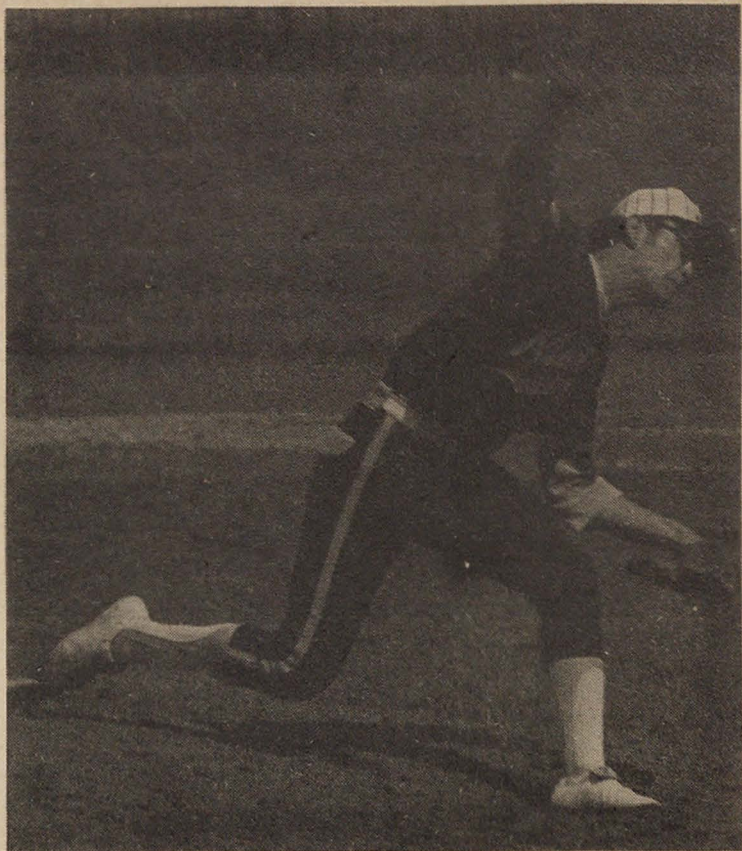

Traveling to Franklin on Tuesday and losing by a score of 418 to 403, the blue and gold were once again led by Mike Pacheco. The hot chipping junior, displaying his combination of good golf and hot temper, zipped around the course with a blazing 78.

Tom Ewald, gutting it out and playing with an injured knee, came in at 82, three strokes ahead of hard charging freshman Joe Kuzmitz and pressure-handler Steve Hammerle. Hammerle, rounding into shape and coming off the injury which threatened to end his brilliant career, will provide a much needed boost to the sagging hopes being shared by the optimistic golfers.

Senior Tom Blank had a bad day with an 87, but seems to always play his best when confronted with tough competition, the type that will be available at the N.A.I.A. tourney.

The above mentioned duffers, along with Mike Isban, Dick Buerger, and surprising Al Dorko, form the nucleus of the squad that will carry on their shoulders Marian's hope of capturing its first N.A.I.A. championship.

Karason "kurves" another!

The scoring was capped in the 4th when Hank Ahaus singled, advanced on Dan Hayden's "successful" sacrifice, and scored on Ahaus's single to left.

Ted Ahaus with a shutout, upped his record to 5-0. He struck out seven and walked three, allowing three hits.

FRANKLIN 1

Marian's defense won this game with a pickoff at second base, a rifle shot throw to home plate by Greg Pawlik cutting down a runner, and excellent pitching.

It took the Knights 5 innings to score in this game. Aust singled and was moved to second on Paul Norman's sacrifice. Earl Brinker got his second straight hit scoring Aust. Jongleaux walked and Eimer singled, scoring Geather who under "speed up rules" ran for Earl.

In the seventh Eimer walked, Ahaus was hit by a pitch, and this prompted the coach to change to a left handed pitcher. He immediately walked Pawlik on four pitches and walked Tyrrell to add an insurance run to the Knights' total.

The Blue and Gold however were not off the hook. After two were out, Earl Brinker showed signs of tiring and left the game with the sacks full. Coach Morrell summoned Russ Pawlik, "Joe Kool", to the hill. Russ drew the game out and had the Knights in a nervous frenzy before he struck out the only batter he faced on a "hanging" fast ball.

We wish success to Coach Morrell and the Knights in their bid to conquer the district, area, and national N.A.I.A. tournament.

More and more companies are publishing long distance telephone numbers for customers to report manufacturing defects. They know it's the easiest way to iron out problems. More economical, too. For example, you can call Philadelphia, Pa. for less than $1.00 when you dial direct after 5:00 p.m. Next time you want faster action on any problem, get it the easy, economical way. Dial direct.
