Publicity-Wise

A group of students on this campus have received the go-ahead sign to form a news bureau to give Marian more publicity for the events of our campus. Perhaps this group can remedy the lack of news that has been evident in the local papers.

Thursday, 10:30, there will be a Memorial Mass for Bishop Chartrand in the college chapel. Bishop Chartrand was renowned for his interest in youth and his work in encouragement of more frequent reception of Holy Communion.

WE LOOK WITH PRIDE . . . . .

The CSMC has started working on the program for bringing a Hungarian student to this campus. CURA, another student relief agency, is also aiding them in this endeavor. The first fund raising plan is to sponsor an all-school dance on January 4, 1957. A holiday affair, it will occur very close to the traditional Twelfth Night time for parties.

As this program is one of the most worthwhile ideas that has come along for quite awhile, we'd like to suggest that some of the other clubs on campus might be able to help further this project.

Charity is not just giving a dog a bone. It is giving a dog a bone when you are as hungry as the dog.

PROUDLY WE SERVE . . .

. . . . . OK we should. "With more than 150 men on campus should we allow the priest, an Alter Christus, to ascend Calvary alone? Could there not be something done to assure that there would always be a server ready to assist at Mass or any Divine Service - and to be there five minutes ahead to see that all is in readiness? Does it speak well for the men of Marian when visitors must serve at the College Mass? Come on men - this is your chance - the women can not do it. Let's have some suggestions in this column next week."

The above is a quote from an anonymous letter we received this week. Ordinarily, we will print only articles that are signed, but this idea seemed worthy of attention and thus, we give it to you.

Friday is the day we usually celebrate the patronal feast of the school. December 7 is observed since the 8th is a free day. Archbishop Schulte will be here to speak to the students at the Mass at 9:00, Friday morning. Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores are reminded that they are expected to wear cap and gowns to Mass on Friday.

WOMEN KEEP SILENCE ! ! !

A group of Marian women are going to Fatima this weekend for a closed retreat. There will be other retreats for women at Fatima Retreat House this year, so watch for the announcements. There will be a large group able to go during the school retreat, January 28-30

Basketball Score

Last night's game proved disappointing, as the fans thought we would win. The final score was Rose Poly 69, Marian 62.

We'd like to remind those who enjoy making jabs at the team that school spirit is not just cheering a winning team, but backing any group that works hard to represent Marian.

The next home game will be at Secena against Indiana Central. Game time is 8:00. Your student I.D. is all you need to join the crowd this Thursday night.

"There's lots of water in Indianapolis, club, club,,,,,"

And quite a bit of it is in the I.U. Med Center Pool. The Marian Swimming team will have their first inter-collegiate meet of the season there Friday at 3:00 when they go against Loyola, Chicago. Since there are no classes on Friday afternoon, we suggest you might drop in.

CLUB NEWS

ACS Student Affiliates - Meeting, Sunday, December 9 at 2:30. Charles Cesnik will conduct a student seminar. Topic: The Diels-Alder Reaction. Plan to stay for the Social Hour following the meeting. There will be no charge for those who have paid their local dues for the semester. For those who haven't paid their local dues, and for non-members, the charge is 50¢.

There will be a regular meeting Tuesday, December 11. Bring Dec. 3 issue of Chemical and Engineering News.

M-Club - There will be an M-Club meeting after Mass on Friday morning to discuss plans for activities leading up to Christmas.

VETERANS - This group has asked for official recognition. Check board for information about moderator.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING . . . . .

The Sodality has a list up for you to sign up for a Christmas present for the Holy Father. The poster is in the Auditorium lobby, near the entrance to the Auditorium. The spiritual bouquet will be united with that of students everywhere.

The CSMC is planning on helping some needy family have a happier Christmas this year. For this purpose they are conducting a drive for old clothing and canned goods. If you find it inconvenient to bring either of these items, you can contribute financially to the project by contacting your class CSMC representative.

The resident hall is getting ready for Christmas too. The annual door-decorating contest is underway with winners to be decided next week.

For all the school to celebrate, the Student Board has a party set for December 12 from 7:00 to 10:00. All students and faculty members are invited.

Excerpts from Student Board meeting:

Part of the business was concerned with the News Bureau, the Christmas party and the Holiday Dance January 4.

A meeting of the Administration, the class moderators, Board officers and class presidents was agreed upon to discuss the handling of class treasuries. A tentative date of this Friday was chosen.

SHORT STORIES:

The city girl was on her first visit to the country for the Christmas holidays. She was anxious to show that she was not altogether ignorant of rural conditions, and when a dish of honey was set before her on the breakfast table, she saw her opportunity. "Oh," she observed with studied carelessness, "I see you keep a bee."
