MCSA CONSTITUTIONAL REVISION

The Student Board, the governing body of the Marian College Student Association (MCSA) is presently working on and finalizing the revision of its constitution. Revision of the constitution was begun last year, and is now being finished to present it to the Board of Trustees for approval. Any full-time student, who has paid his Student Association fee, is a member of the MCSA.

Saturday, March 4 and Sunday and Sunday, February 26 and 27, the MCSA held a Constitutional Convention. During this convention varied discussions were carried on. These included such topics as the purpose of the Student Association and the duties of the officers along with how they should be chosen. The possibility of initiating a day student organization was also discussed besides whether or not to include the Joint Statement on Rights and Freedoms of Students as a part of the MCSA Constitution or as a separate document. In conjunction with the discussions several recommendations were posed at the convention. One recommendation was that the Student Services Committee and the Academic Affairs Committee representatives be elected by the student body. They have been previously appointed by the Student Board.

Another recommendation dealt with the restructuring of the Social Council. The Chairman and the Vice-Chairman were still to be elected by the student body, but the Secretary and Treasury offices were to be combined and this person be appointed by the Chairman of the Social Council. Also proposed was to limit the membership of the Social Council to two class representatives, a representative from Doyle and from Clare Hall, plus one representative from Booster Club. This would reduce the number of members of the Social Council. Another suggestion raised was to have the class presidents and vice-presidents be automatic representatives of the Social Council instead of having each class elect the representatives, as done presently.

Sunday, March 12, the Student Board met at a regular meeting to discuss and finalize these various topics. This week is being devoted to informing the students about the major changes of the new constitution. Next week a student referendum will take place in which the new constitution is either approved or disapproved. If the Constitution is approved, it will then be presented to Dr. Gatto, who will take it to the Board of Trustees. Upon passing the Board of Trustees, it will then be put into effect.

PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE

The Marian College Publications Committee, according to the Guidelines for the Publications Committee, has "general supervision of student publications and the darkroom." This committee, often referred to as the Pub Board, "will investigate, discuss and evaluate the management of any student publications as to their changing relevance and stature in relation to the college."

The Publications Committee, a Student Board committee, is composed of the editors of the four publications, the vice-president of Student Board (who serves as Chairman), and the darkroom manager. Each publication organization has the power of one vote. Publication advisors may also be

Three executive officers of the MCSA, Jim Herbe, Nancy Perkins, and Mike Mottram, work on the constitution revision at last Sunday's Student Board meeting.

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

The MCSA Financial Responsibility Plan has been passed by the Student Board and is now being submitted as a part of the MCSA Constitution. This Financial Responsibility Plan was introduced last year by Dennis DuBois, last year's Student Board treasurer, Colonel Wagner, and Dean Brames in an effort to formalize various financial procedures.

Included in the general provisions of this budgetary plan is the delegation of authority and responsibility by the Board of Trustees to the MCSA executive board for the fiscal planning, funding, budgetary administration and operation for student organizations participating in this plan. The general provisions also call for a $12.50 Student Association fee per semester. This fee may be adjusted for subsequent academic years, upon recommendations of the MCSA Executive Board and the Marian College Controller's office and approved by the Marian College Board of Trustees.

Participation in this budgetary plan is open to any organization fully recognized and in good standing under current standards of MCSA and the College.

The budgeting process of the Financial Responsibility Program is to be conducted in the following manner. No later than April 15 preceding the opening of each academic year, each participating council or organization shall submit to the Budget Committee of MCSA six copies of its budgetary request for the next academic year, specifying all its expenditures. The Budget Committee is to be composed of five members, one a member of the Executive Board, the Social Council Vice-Chairman and Treasurer, one student appointed by the Student Board, and the Treasurer of the Executive Board, who serves as Chairman. The Budget Committee then prepares a statement of anticipated operating revenues available to the MCSA for allocation and expenditure in the next academic year. The Budget Committee also prepares a consolidated statement of the budgets proposed by the participating councils and organizations. After the Budget Committee distributes its recommended tentative budgetary authorizations, it schedules Budget Committee hearings, at which representatives of the participating organizations and councils may appear and indicate their acceptance of, or rejection of, the tentative recommendations.

All the funds of the MCSA are to be retained in one central Association account according to the budgetary plan. Cash withdrawals by a council or student association must be authorized by the Treasurer of MCSA. In the case of contracts, the council or student seeking to contract must apply to the Treasurer of MCSA for a contract approval.

Under this budgetary plan, the Treasurer is to be the chief financier and accounting officer of MCSA and is to be responsible to the President and the Executive Board of MCSA for proper execution of the duties of his office.

This plan also provides that the financial year is to begin on September 1 and end August 31, and that an outside auditing firm prepare an annual audit report.

CONDUCT REVIEW BOARD

The Faculty Board of Elections tabulated the ballot on the Conduct Review Board: forty-three voted to approve the Conduct Review Board proposal as passed by the Faculty Council while thirty voted against the proposal. Therefore, the Conduct Review Board has been sustained by faculty vote and will be implemented beginning with the 1972-73 academic year. The faculty members of the Board are to be elected at the same time as the election of the Faculty Board of Appeals.

Faculty Workshop

"Getting up, getting involved," may not be the appropriate phrase to describe the initiative some Marian College faculty members have demonstrated in the Martin Center Workshop. However, 'involve-ment' is the perfect word.

Setting aside two days at the Allison Mansion, Friday and Saturday, March 18 and 19, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., approximately twenty-five faculty members will concur with representatives from the Martin Center to probe the urban situation in Indianapolis, its effects on Marian College students, and problems relating to race relations.

Listed as the Martin Center Faculty Workshop, these faculty members compose a special program developed by the Martin Center Staff.

Martin Center is a Black movement geared to train people of all races and faiths in the language, culture and life-style of the Black Community.

It operates as a communicator and educator for those who have an interest in Black people.

In addition to the Black Community at Marian College, other campus minority groups will be discussed. "The Martin Center Faculty Workshop is the beginning of a continual operation," states one of the Faculty members, Sr. Claire Whalen. Yes, the beginning of a moral commitment as well.

CAMPUS FIRE SCARE

Once again fire trucks were summoned to the Marian College campus when, on Friday, March 11, smoke was smelt and then seen coming from the vacuum system in Clare Hall. About 10:30 p.m. the smoke was discovered and the Fire Department was contacted. The firemen hypothesized that the incident was caused by a cigarette or ashes dropped into one of the vacuums. No damage was reported.

WEARIN' O' THE GREEN

Every month has some special feast and March is certainly no exception. It's the month of the wearin o' the green in honor of Ireland's famed Saint Patrick.

The Irish patron is hailed the world over on March 17. It's a traditional thing for people to attend morning Mass, take part in speeches and meetings, and prepare festive meals along with an evening of entertainment.

The guys wear shamrocks on their hat and girls usually make some sort of pin-on of green ribbons. In Ireland, March 17 is celebrated as the first day of spring. On this day the livestock are driven out of the fields and many an Irish farmer begins his planting season.

Maybe you, too, have heard a few of the legends. They say St. Patrick lived 120 years like Moses, he freed Ireland from all venomous snakes and reptiles and he obtained the staff he carried from God. I once heard that St. Pat himself will judge the Irish race at the end of the world. If the end of the world is Friday the 17th, and you happen to have on green, I'll bet you'll be saved. Why not try wearing green -- you'll probably like it.

members, but with only power of debate. The Guidelines recognizes that while student publications are initially affiliated with and funded by the Student Board, they are ultimately responsible to the Board of Trustees.

This publications document provides procedures for the establishment of a new publication. It also discusses the regular procedure for election of new editors near the end of each school year. "The Publications Committee shall supervise and implement a workshop/internship program whereby newly chosen personnel shall receive on the job experience prior to their term of office."

Provisions for "promoting campus journalism" are stated in the Publications Guidelines. They are as follows. Freedom-Each press should be free to develop its own character, policies, organization, and operations. Each should be free from all forms of censorship and advanced approval of its copy. Truth and Accuracy-News coverage should be correct and accurate. Fairplay-Accusations must be substantiated and proper space for rebuttal provided for any printed material. Authorship-The writer and sources of information must be identifiable to the editor, the advisor, or both. Disclaimer-Each press must carry a disclaimer in each of its issues. DR. BAILEY SPEAKS AT MARIAN

On March 12 the History Department hosted Dr. Jackson Bailey of Earlham College as a speaker and discussion leader on the topic "Relations of the U.S. China and Japan in the Seventies." Professor Bailey has studied at Harvard University where he received a doctorate in East Asian history. He spent eight years in Japan after World War II doing research and assisting in the organization of International Student Seminar and Work Camps.

In an interview, Dr. Bailey discussed an exchange program which Earlham has with Japan. The philosophically oriented approach taken is directed toward the Japanese. Twenty-five students travel to Japan to study and become familiar with the culture. They study the Japanese language and history beforehand. It is felt that by speaking the language the student can approach the Japanese from their own view, rather than Japanese to the American view. The students live with Japanese families and spend two to three weeks on a Japanese farm.

Professor Bailey also discussed Nixon's trip to Peking in the light that it has opened the way for knowledge about China; according to this Chinese-Japanese specialist students should be concerned with this culture and knowledge. That Chinese are ethnocentric was another point which Dr. Bailey made. He felt that this was justified in the fact that throughout the past the Chinese have always been superior in battle. This, he said is a major problem for the Chinese today.

A lasting point made by this distinguished speaker was that the U.S. should keep up good relations with both China and Japan.

MUSICAL DUET WILL PRESENT RECITAL

Leonard Hassman, Violist with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, and Joan Gerzon, pianist, will present a program of music by Handel, Schubert, Mozart, and Brahms, Wednesday, March 15, at eight p.m. in the Music Building.

Hassman, a graduate of the Eastman School of Music, has done graduate work in viola performance at the University of Michigan. During the summers of 1965 and 1966 he toured twelve countries of Europe as a violist in the School Orchestra of America under the direction of Dr. Frederick Fennell, performing twenty-seven concerts as part of the People-to-People Program. He was principal violist during the 1966 tour.

He has won a number of awards including two grants-in-aid to the Performance Seminar in Chamber Music with the Guarneri Quartet; the Leo Clausman Congress of Strings Scholarship, sponsored jointly by the American Federation of Musicians and the Rockefeller Foundation; and a fellowship to attend the Summer Institute for the Arts-in-Judaism Masters/Fellows program. This was sponsored by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

Joan Gerzon is a graduate of Butler University and Jordan

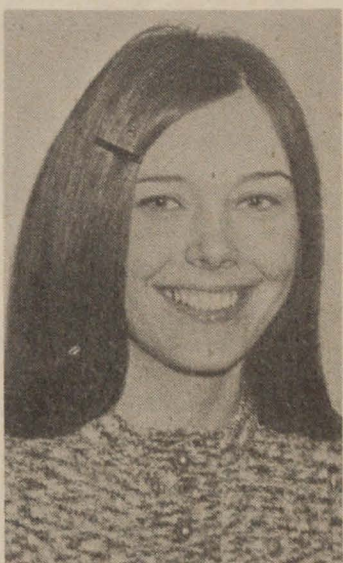

College of Music, with a Masters degree from Indiana University. She has performed in various recitals and concerts through the State.

The program is as follows:
Handel Concerto in B minor
Schubert Arpeggione Sonata
Mozart Sonatina in G major
Brahms Sonata in F minor

You and your friends are welcome to attend. There is no admission charge.

Spotlighting

Personal involvement with people is an important part of the life of senior Liz Ardelean. Recently named a 500 Princess, Liz is involved with 32 other candidates in the 500 Queen competition. To be chosen as a princess, she had to first fill out an application and send in a picture for preliminary judging. Liz was then picked for judging, which meant that she was interviewed both individually and in a group. Princess qualifications are that the applicant be a full-time college student, 18-21 yrs., in Indiana and also an Indiana resident. Finally, Liz was chosen as a princess on the basis of her poise and personality. As a queen candidate she will be admitted to all the 500 activities and the formal ball.

It is a four member team with several alternates. The four members are Dennis Kelly, Robert McGinnis, Fred Kliban and Jagjeet Ahluwalia. There are sixteen teams in the League, representing two colleges, three high schools and various industrial and independent groups.

HAPPENING

YOUTHGRANTS

In light of the new discoveries being made in the field of humanities, the National Endowment for the Humanities has begun a program of grants for support of humanities projects initiated and conducted by young people. The program will consider applications from both students and young persons out of school. It will offer young people an opportunity to translate their educational and ethical concerns into concrete projects and to reflect critically on their own beliefs and values as well as those held by the larger society.

March 17th has been set as the first deadline for 'Youthgrants' applications for projects scheduled to begin during the summer or fall of 1972.

LINKSMEN HIT THE COURSE

Promising to display a vast array of talent that will make them a threat any time they step on the course, the highly competitive 1972 edition of the Marian College golf team waits in eager anticipation of what could prove to be a highly successful season.

The linksmen, under the able guidance of second year mentor Roy Pille, return six talented lettermen from last year's squad and added several promising rookies that could make the blue and gold a team to be reckoned with.

Coach Pille, who takes a real interest in his players both on and off the course, will have the task of blending the individual talent into a team of high caliber with a tremendous desire to excel and bring home the victories.

Next we'll size up the individual golfers:

Mike Pacheco - Mike is the returning captain from Downers Grove, Illinois who is noted as the best all around golfer on the team. This two year letterman, who by his own admission has gained a notorious reputation for throwing clubs, has a good drive and should provide the squad with valuable leadership.

Steve Hammerle - Steve hails from Batesville and is noted as being the finest lefthanded golfer in Marian's history. A real scrambler who enjoys the game immensely, Steve is a two year letterman.

Tom Ewald - Tom's a letterman from South Bend who provided a real boost to the team last year and is being counted on heavily again, this time around. A real comer with a great short game, Tom is said to be at his best against the toughest competition.

Al Dorko - This Cleveland, Ohio native, known for his daring, aggressive style, is expected to really come on this year. Al, who showed flashes of brilliance last year, makes up for what he lacks in ability by a complete dedication to the game and could be a real threat if he becomes consistent. His game is unreal.

Tom Blank - Tom is from Batesville and is the eldest member on the team. He's a hard charging senior who tackles the course and is noted for his good woods and drives. A two year letterman, he will be tough once he starts to put it all together.

Dick Buegler - An Indianapolis resident, Dick is always there when you need him and is noted for his knowledge of the courses. Dick is also a letterman and will provide leadership for the younger members of the team.

Joe Kuzmitz - A South Bend freshman whose form is said to be poetry in motion. Joe, if he can control his temper, could help the squad if he proves up to the top notch collegiate caliber of golf.

Mike Isban - Mike "Pretty Boy" Isban rounds out the South Bend trio. If his injured shoulder holds up, this flashy dresser will be counted on to make a key contribution providing he can hold up under the rigorous college tour.

Coach Pille's turf crunchers, now rounding into condition, open their season after Easter vacation in quest of improving on last years record.

Steve Hammerle scores two for the Oedipus Complex in one of last week's intramural playoff games.

Intramural Basketball

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

The Courtly Few are the men's intramural basketball champions as a result of their convincing 54-39 victory over the Gods of Hellfire on Monday evening. The Courtly Few jumped out to an early 10-point lead and were never headed the rest of the way, although the Gods did close the gap to five points with about two minutes remaining in the game. Kelvin Comer was the leading scorer for the Courtly Few with 15 points, including 7 of 8 from the charity line. Ted Ahaus added 12 for the winners. However, the star of the game would have to be Pat Zapp. Zapp scored 8 points and pulled down 17 big rebounds for the victors. Tom Babione and Joe Hoog lead the losing Gods with 12 and 11 points respectively.

WOMEN'S INTRAMURALS

Due to the Earlham-Marian game Monday night, the Women's Intramural Basketball games were cancelled. However, play resumed with it's full force Wednesday night. The Last Resort had no trouble at all downing Da Pacers 31-10. Dolores Szemborski dumped in 16 big points to give her team a high-scoring victory.

The Beaver Shooters also found it easy to conquer "2" 23-8. With 9 points Karen Flischel commanded the boards. The Out of Towners forfeited to Kirch's Birches, giving that team their fourth win of the season.

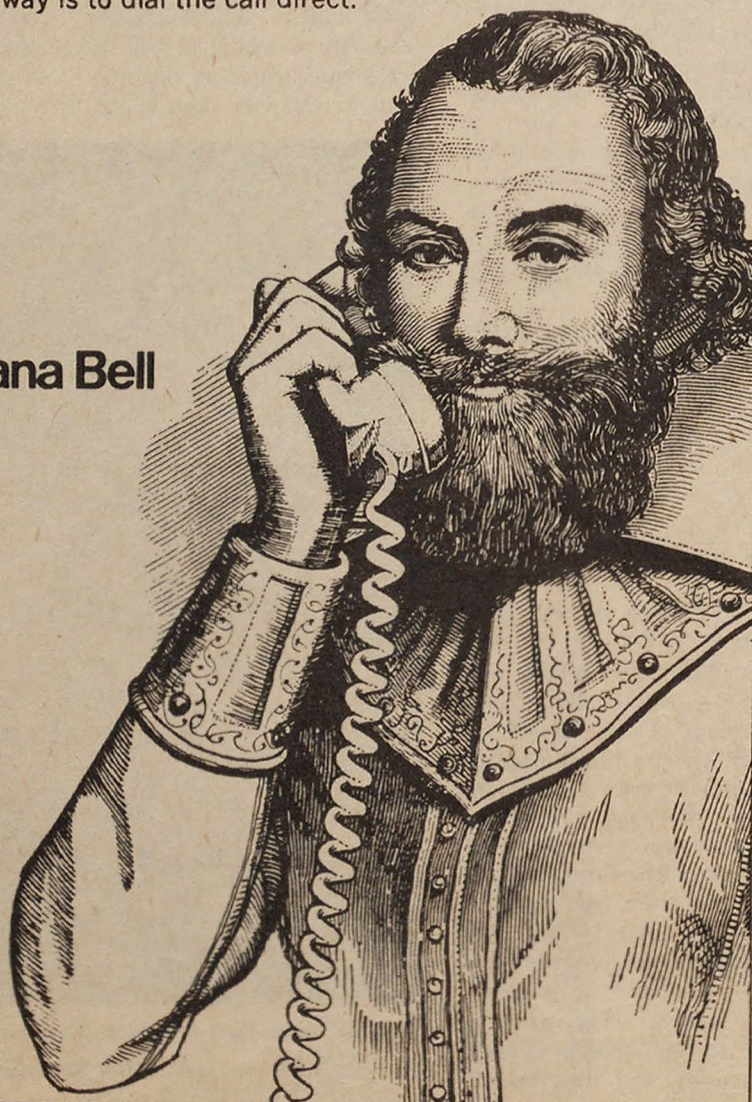

*"Hello, Chief?
Pocahontas and I just eloped!"*

"Delicate" news is so hard to communicate in a letter—and so much more graciously said with a long distance call.

Costs so little, too, when you dial direct (about 1/2 the cost of person-to-person). For example, a direct-dialed call to Niagara Falls after 5:00 p.m. would cost less than $1.00. The tactful way to "break news" is to call. The economical way is to dial the call direct.
